Ben Stiller

He is a/an ...

Renee Zellweger

She is a/an …
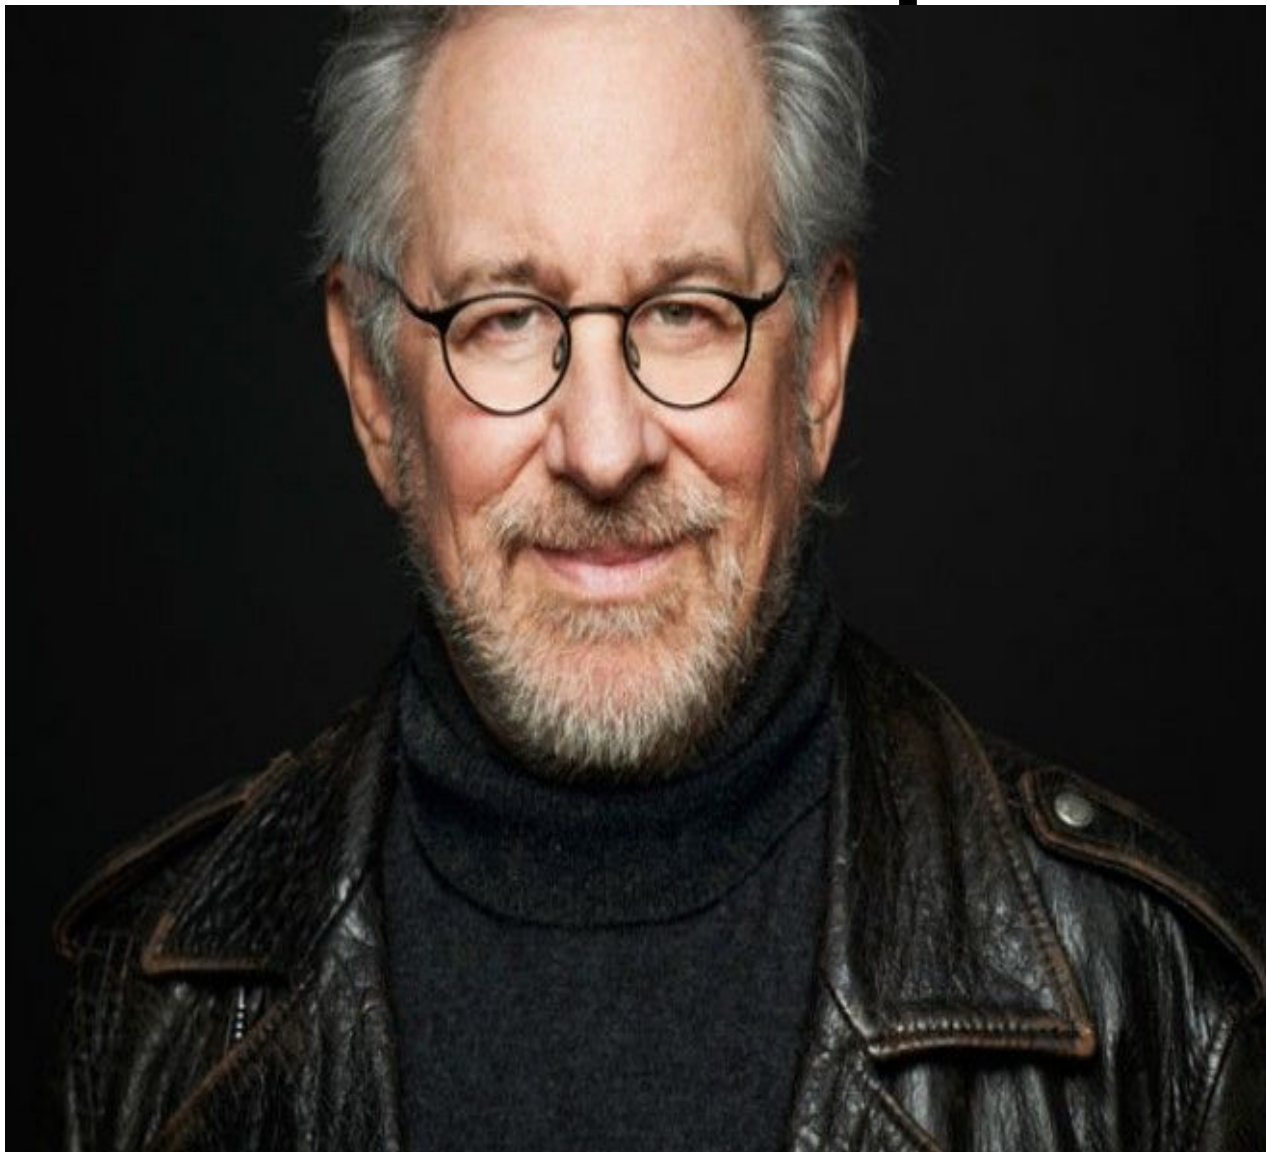

Claudia Schiffer

She is a ...

Steven Spielberg

He is a …

Celebrities

Walk of fame

OUR GOALS:

- - to introduce new vocabulary;

- - to introduce new grammar rule "Comparative/Superlative forms" of adjectives/verbs;

- - to talk about famous people;

- - to describe people's appearance and personality.

Professions:

Film director

Comedian

actor

Actress

TV presenter

Model

Opera singer

Figure skater

Beautiful	Talented
Handsome	Smart
Rich	Well-known
Attractive	Funny
Famous	Clever
Successful	intelligent
Great

MAKE UP TRUE SENTENCES ABOUT EACH PERSON IN THE PICTURE

- Use the model:

- 1) Claudia Schiffer is a beautiful model.
- 2) Steven Spielberg is a successful film director.

What do you know about the stars in the picture?

- Read and answer the questions in the quiz.

LET'S HAVE A REST

Ôèçêóëüòìèíóòêà.mp4

HOW DO WE FORM THE COMPARATIVE/SUPERLATIVE FORMS OF ADJECTIVES/ADVERBS?

- He learns quicker than her.

- She is more intelligent than him.

- It's the funniest film I have ever seen.

- Jude Law is the most attractive man in the world.

- We use (not) as + adjective + as
- - to show that two people or things are/are not equal.
- Frank is as clever as Jim. (They are both equally clever.)
- Anna is not as rich as Bill. (Anna hasn't got as much money as Bill.)
- She can't run as fast as Laura.

Ex 4 p. 67

- Compare, as in the example.

- 1. snail/not/fast/rabbit/

- A snail is not as fast as a rabbit.

- 2. CD/expensive/DVD/

- 3. Jamie/not/funny/Mark

- 4. Ben stiller/not/well-known/Tom Cruise

Ex. 5 p.67

- Use the adverbs to compare yourself to your friend and the rest of the class.

- - run fast
- - dance well
- - speak loudly
- - ride carefully

FAMOUS RUSSIAN FIGURE SKATERS

Decide if the statements are T (true) or F (false). Listen and check.

LISTEN

SPEAKING

- Choose three people/characters and make notes about their appearance and personality.

WORKBOOK

- Find information about famous people from your country. Make your own quiz. Use one in Ex. 2 as a model.

- Ex. 1,2,3 p. 41 in your WB.