

School in my class. There

My class is not very bit. There are only twenty are eight girls and twelve boys. We all very friendly and always trying to help each other. Me and my classmates live nearby, so we often meet after school to play different games and just walk.

Thank you.