

Buckingham Palace

- Buckingham Palace, in London, is the official residence and office of the British monarch.

The palace is located in the City of Westminster.
The Buckingham Palace Garden is the largest private garden in London.
The largest functions of the year are the Queen's Garden Parties for up to 8,000 invitees in the Garden .

The Garden Parties, usually three, are held in the summer, usually in July. Buckingham Palace has 775 rooms (Seven hundred seventy five). More than 50,000 people visit the Palace each year as guests to , lunches, dinners, receptions and the Royal Garden Parties.

Buckingham Palace is used for Changing of the Guard, a major ceremony and tourist attraction (daily during the summer months; every other day during the winter).

Thus, Buckingham Palace is a symbol and home of the British monarchy.

