APPLE DAY

Apple Day is a modern national British holiday.
It is celebrated on the 21st of October.

Apple Day is dedicated to apples, gardens and local sightseeings.

The first Apple Day took place in Covent Garden, London.
It was initiated by the charity organization
“Common Ground” in 1990.

An apple is a symbol of physical,
cultural and genetic variety.

People can taste different kinds of apples.

People can buy apples and learn how to plant and grow apple-trees.

People can taste delicious
“apple things”

Various “apple” games and competitions are held on Apple Day.

“The longest peel” was made by Kathy Walfer.
The apple peel was 52,51m (16, October.,1976)

Englishpeople always remember: “An apple a day keeps the doctor away”

Poems about apples

A little red apple

A little red apple
Hung high in a tree.
I looked up at it,
And it looked down at me.
“Come down, please,” I called.
And what do you suppose?
The little red apple
Dropped right on my nose!

Poems about apples

I like apples

Red apples,
Big apples,
Good apples,
Yummy apples,
Any kind of apples.
I like apples!

An apple on the tree
An apple in the basket,
An apple in the fridge,
An apple in the store.
I like apples!

Poems about apples

Apples

Apples in the attic,
Apples in the hall,
Apples in the summer,
Apples in the fall.
Apples make you healthy,
Apples make you tall.
I will eat some apples.
I will eat them all.
