So many countries all over the world,
So many people life tales told!
Different cities, languages, poems,
Amazing traditions, legends, stories.
We travel East, we travel West
To know so much is best,
If South is warm, North is cold,
We start our trip and off we go!

Welcome to Wales!

Wales is a part of the United Kingdom.

It is situated in the West of Great Britain.

There are two official languages in Wales – English and Welsh. Wales has its own language, customs, holidays and music.

The symbol of the country is the Red Dragon, which is depicted on the national flag on white and green background.

Wales has other national symbols
– the daffodil and the leek.

The Welsh celebrate the national day on the 1st of March, in honor of St David, the patron saint of Wales.

On this day, some people wear the national costume.

The country has its own national game called rugby.

The Welsh love to watch matches in the Millennium Stadium in Cardiff.

Cardiff is the capital of Wales since 1955.

The nature of Wales is very beautiful. This is a country of mountains and lakes.

The highest mountain in Wales is Snowdon.

The most beautiful things are the waterfalls.

The wonderful thing is St Winifred's Well.

Wales is a really nice country to visit.
