

Holidays and Traditions in Great Britain

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

Match the names of the holidays
with their dates :

Halloween	the 14 th of
Christmas	February
New Year	The 31 st of
St. Valentine's	October
Day	March – April
Mother's Day	the 17 th of March
Easter	the 25 th of
May Day	December
St/ Patrick's	the 1 st of January
Day	March

What do children hang on their beds or next to the fireplace in order to get presents on Christmas Eve?

What's the traditional dish for Christmas dinner?

What do people celebrate on the 26th of December?

- a) Christmas
- b) Boxing Day
- c) New Year's Day
- d) Guy Fawkes Day

What's children's favorite Halloween

To make Jack-o Lantern

What do English children usually say at Halloween night?

Trick or treat,
Smell our feet.
We want something
Good to eat.

This is a traditional day when people express their feelings for each other, send cards, candies, flowers.

What does an ancient New Year's custom First-footing

The first person to enter a home after midnight on the first day of the year should be a male, preferably with dark hair. He should carry a gift, such as a coin for prosperity, bread for food, salt for flavor, or whiskey to represent good cheer.

Who is the main character of Easter
holiday?
English
children
believe, that he comes
and hides
Eggs in the garden for

Listen attentively to the video and answer the questions:

1. What traditional activities are held at Easter?
2. How many chocolate eggs are eaten in the UK at

This holiday is usually in March.
People visit
their moms,
say how they
love them
and give them
flowers and
presents

Watch attentively the video and answer the questions:

1. When do people celebrate Guy Fawkes Day?
2. How is it also called?
3. What do people do on Guy Fawkes Day?

Watch attentively the video and answer the questions:

1. When do British people officially celebrate the Queen's birthday?
2. When did they start to celebrate this holiday?
3. What is the main tradition of this holiday?
4. When is Queen's actual birthday?

The End