Queen's working day

Queen Elizabeth II wakes up at 7 o'clock, has a cup of tea and reads the Times. Then she has a bath and gets dressed. At 8 o'clock she listens to the BBC news and has breakfast with Prince Philip. After breakfast she reads personal letters and has an important business talk with Private Secretary and then works at government documents. At 1o'clock she has a lunch in her private apartments in Buckingham Palace and at 2o'clock leaves the Palace to open a new hospital. There she makes speeches, shakes hands and has a cup of tea.

At 4.45 she is back at the Palace and works in her office. At 5.00 she meets foreign visitors and then has the final meeting with her Private Secretary. In the evening she goes to St. James Palace where she has a reception party and talks with 70 people. Then she goes back to the Palace and at 8.30 has dinner with Prince Philip and a group of some businessmen. At 10o'clock she watches television news and then reads official papers and telephones some members of the Royal Family-just to see if all is well. At about 11o'clock she goes to bed.
