Президент США Франклин Д. Рузвельт подписывает закон о ленд-лизе

The history of lend-leasing began in 1940 in the USA. Lend-leasing is a programme of crediting of allies by supplying with ammunition, food and equipment. All supply was free after war damaged property was not paid but good property had to be paid.

During the great patriotic war hundreds tonnes cargo were delivered to the Soviet Union by the USA and Britain. They supplied our country with tanks, airplanes, motorcycles and other ammunition. But often these equipment was of low quality and not very modern.
