

The Monuments of Ancient Vladimir. Comparisons.

Teacher: Yurova E. A.

Plan for our lesson:

- 1. To learn some new words on the topic « The Town of Vladimir. Ancient monuments».
- 2. To get more information about our native town and its places of interest.
- 3. To revise some grammar rules and make some exercises on the topic «Comparisons».

Some new words:

- to be proud of- гордиться
- ancient- старинный
- fortress- крепость
- church – церковь
- cathedral –собор
- monument -памятник
- Native town – родной город
- «Golden Ring of Russia» – Золотое кольцо России
- the Cathedral of Assumption – Успенский собор
- the Cathedral of St. Demetrius –Дмитриевский собор
- the Golden gates – Золотые ворота

Vladimir is one of the ancient Russian towns of the "Golden Ring of Russia". It was founded as the fortress by Vladimir Monomakh in 1108.

In the 12th century the town became the political and cultural centre. In those years many beautiful churches and cathedrals were built – the Cathedral of Assumption (1158), the Cathedral of St. Demetrius (1194), the Golden gates (1164).

In 18th century Vladimir became the centre of gubernia. The Museum of regional studies and the Museum of crystal were built in the town.

Today the town has two universities, some colleges, children's musical and sports schools. There are two theatres, a concert hall, a picture gallery, movie houses, libraries, stadiums, swimming pools and parks. We are proud of our native town.

Answer the questions:

- 1. When was the town of Vladimir founded?
- 2. What famous monuments are there in Vladimir?
- 3. What cultural facilities are there in Vladimir?

Fill in the gaps with the right comparative old - -

big - - pretty - - beautiful- -

good - -

Read the statements and say «Are they true or false» ?

- Moscow is older than Vladimir.

Read the statements and say «Are they true or false» ?

- The most beautiful churches and cathedrals in Vladimir were built in the 14th century.

Read the statements and say «Are they true or false» ?

- Today Vladimir is much prettier than 100 hundred years ago.

Fill in the gaps with the right comparative

- The Cathedral of Assumption is 6 years (old) than the Golden gates.

Fill in the gaps with the right comparative

- The Cathedral of St. Demetrius is (small) than The Cathedral of Assumption.

Fill in the gaps with the right comparative

- The centre of the city is (clean) than the other streets.

Fill in the gaps with the right comparative

- It is (interesting) to go on excursion around Vladimir than to read about it in the book.

Fill in the gaps with the right comparative

- The Golden Gates is (beautiful) symbol of Vladimir.

Translate into English

- 1. Успенский собор – самый высокий памятник во Владимире.
- 2. Успенский собор- самый старый памятник во Владимире.
- 3. Моё самое любимое место во Владимире- это Золотые ворота.
- 4. Мне больше нравится Успенский собор чем

- Thank you for your attention!