

London.

London is the capital of Britain.

Westminster Abbey is a royal church. Here you can see the tombs of many British Kings and Queens and other famous people.

The Houses of Parliament consist of 2 chambers: the house of Lords and
The House of Commons.

Big Ben is the name of the great bell.

Tower
was a fortress, a royal palace and later a prison.
But it is only a museum now.

Tower Bridge

Buckingham Palace is the official residence of the British Monarch.

The Horse Guards

Admiral Nelson's Column

Trafalgar Square

It was named in honour of the historical victory won by the British fleet under the command of Admiral Nelson. The battle took place at Cape Trafalgar.

St. Paul's Cathedral is a place for many state ceremonies. Every year a special service is held on the occasion of the Monarch's birthday.

The British Museum is one of the largest museum in the world.

London Eye - the biggest observation wheel in the world.

Red double - decker

liament • St. Paul's Cathedral

TOUR

Tower of London • Trafalgar

Street

cus

A close-up photograph of the entrance to Madame Tussaud's. The name is displayed in large, raised, gold-colored letters on a dark, curved wooden background. The letters are arranged in two lines: 'MADAME' on top and 'TUSSAUD'S' below it. The wood has a visible grain and is framed by decorative horizontal moldings.

MADAME TUSSAUD'S

An aerial photograph of London, England, featuring the River Thames winding through the city. The London Eye, a large Ferris wheel, is prominently displayed in the center-right. The city skyline is visible in the background under a hazy, golden light. In the bottom left corner, there is a white rectangular box with black and red text. In the bottom right corner, the website address 'www.london2012.com' is printed in a small, black font.

GET SET FOR LONDON 2012 LDN12
YOUR OLYMPIC GAMES ARE ON THE WAY

www.london2012.com