English and Kalmyk Tea

The English and Kalmyk people are so different, but still is something common between the two peoples- this is their favorite national drink –tea. 56 million people drink tea all over Britain every day. Tea came to great Britain from the Far East in the 17th century. Tea time is the afternoon meal of sandwiches, cake and tea to keep away hunger between lunch and dinner. The English people have usually 4 cups a day .They usually have scones , butter, cream, milk, with their tea. The Englishmen drink a lot of tea. They drink it with lemon, we drink tea with milk, so it is called the Kalmyk tea.

Where did tea come from to Great Britain?
