Shakespeare's Birthday

The famous 1) playwright ... William Shakespeare was probably born on 23rd April, the same day that he died 52 years later in 1616. On this day each year, there is a 2) parade ... to celebrate him in Stratford-upon-Avon, the town of Shakespeare's birth in the UK. A local teenager leads the parade and 3) carries ... 'the quill', an old-fashioned writing instrument which symbolises how important Shakespeare was for British literature. Behind the leader come people in traditional 4) costumes ... , marching bands and schoolchildren. Everyone makes their way to Holy Trinity Church, where the mayor 5) puts ...
