

The Hare and the Tortoise

Sing a song of Sixpence

*Sing a song of sixpence,
A pocket full of rye,
Four and twenty blackbirds
Backed in a pie.
When the pie was opened,
The birds began to sing;
Wasn't that a dainty dish
To set before the king?*

- Laugh-laughed
- Surprise-surpriseded
- Start-started
- Jump-jumped
- Pass-passed
- Open-opened
- Learn-learned
- Look-looked

The hare was brave lazy energetic

The tortoise was arrogant kind unkind friendly

What lesson do you learn from the story?

- Don't sleep when you run.
- Don't be slow.
- Don't laugh too much.
- The winner takes all.
- The slower you go the faster you get.

- Сегодня я узнал
- Я понял, что
- Теперь я могу
- Я научился
- Было интересно
- Было трудно

THE END.

GOOD JOB!
