

Liverpool Liverpool

-
- Liverpool is a city in the United Kingdom , a port on the northwest coast of England, at the mouth of the River Mersey. The population - 441 477 people (2002) - the fifth largest city of the United Kingdom (and the third - in England).

COAT OF ARMS

history

- In 1190 the settlement was first mentioned under the name Liuerpul, which means "muddy pond." "
- In 1207, King John of England issued a letter on which Liverpool received the status of borough.
- In the middle of the XVI century, Liverpool remained very small village with five hundred inhabitants

Albert

Dock

in

Liverpool

The most famous attraction of Liverpool - the docks, and it is logical that many century Liverpool was the largest port in the world

Pier Head in Liverpool

-
- The complex, called Pier Head - perhaps the most grandiose of the Liverpool docks

Beatles Museum in Liverpool

Liverpool is home of the most famous British band «Beathles»

Liverpool football team

- Liverpool is famous for its football team

Football club "Liverpool" was founded in 1892 and the following year joined the Football League in England. Since its inception, holds home games at the stadium "Anfield". The stadium was built in 1884, "Anfield" holds about forty-five thousand fans,

