

A wooden door with a large floral wreath of yellow and purple flowers hanging on the left side. A brass knocker in the shape of a bull's head is mounted on the door. The door is slightly ajar, revealing a brick interior. The text "Welcome to Dudutki!" is overlaid in the center.

Welcome to Dudutki!

gandliar.com

WORKSHOP. YOU CAN SEE
HOW TO MAKE POTS.

The image shows several handmade straw toys hanging against a warm-toned wooden wall. On the left, a large, intricate piece features a central braided column with multiple knotted, shell-like or flower-like shapes attached to it. To its right, another smaller braided piece hangs, also adorned with similar knotted shapes. The background is a rustic wooden surface, and the lighting is soft, highlighting the textures of the straw and wood.

WORKSHOP. YOU CAN SEE STAW TOYS.

WORKSHOP. YOU CAN SEE
HORSE SHOES FOR LUCK.

A rustic village bakery interior. In the foreground, a wooden barrel sits on a table next to a small bowl of butter and a large, rustic loaf of bread. In the background, a white oven with a red handprint design is visible, along with a striped blanket and a wooden chair.

THE VILLAGE BAKERY. YOU CAN EAT FRESH BREAD THERE.

The farm. You can see domestic animals and birds there.

The water park. You can enjoy the beauty of Belarusian countryside.

You can see ostriches, peacocks,
ducks and chickens.

YOU CAN EAT TRADITIONAL BELARUSIAN FOOD.

TUT.BY

You can see there a collection of old cars.

AND, OF COURSE, YOU CAN BUY PRESENTS.

Come and learn about Dudutki more!!!

