

SYMBOLS OF ENGLAND

Capital : London

The three national symbols of England are the St. George's cross (usually seen as a flag), the red rose and the Three Lions crest (usually seen as a badge).

The oak is the national tree of England

Royal Coat of Arms

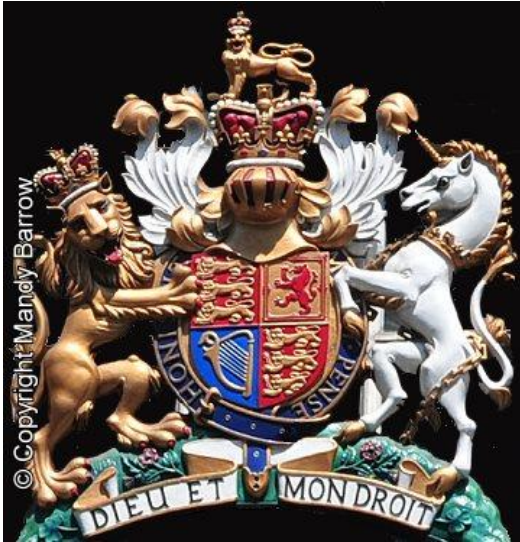

SYMBOLS OF Scotland

Capital City: Edinburgh

Cross of St Andrew

On the right it is supported by the Unicorn of Scotland.
(The unicorn is chained because in mediaeval times a free unicorn was considered a very dangerous beast (only a virgin could tame a unicorn))

The national flower of Scotland is the thistle

Royal Standard depict heraldic red lion on a gold field surrounded by a red double border sprouted lilies.

Symbols of Wales

The Daffodil

leek

St David - Dewi Sant was a Celtic monk, abbot and bishop, who lived in the sixth century. He spread the word of Christianity across Wales

Flag of Wales

Symbols of Northern Ireland

the Shamrock

St. Patrick

the patron saint of Ireland, is credited with bringing Christianity to Ireland. He was born in Wales somewhere around AD 385.

