

History

Bolgar - the ancient capital of Volga Bulgaria state that existed in the VIII-XIII centuries. Bolgar was an international center of trade, stand in the way between Russia and Central Asia. After the Mongol invasion, he became a member of the Golden Horde. Complex - the only remaining trace of the existence of these two medieval states.

Objects

Bolgar - it is a vast town, surrounded by rampart and ditch, where the architectural monuments of XIII - XIV centuries: Cathedral Mosque, East and North mausoleums, Khan's Tomb, the Small Minaret, the Black House, the White House, Khan Bath and other.

Tourism

Bolgar popular with tourists. If in 1990 the average annual Bolgar visited 35-40 thousand people, but now town receives more than 200,000 visitors.

Bolgar

