Why we learn it

English is around the world

- It is the official language in 44 countries: the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the USA, Australia, New Zealand. It is used as one of the official languages in Canada, the Irish Republic

Where is English used as a world language?

- It is also spoken as a foreign second language by many people in India, Pakistan, and numerous countries in Africa, today nothing of people all over the world who knows English as a foreign language

Information!

Today English is the language of the world. It is only in the course of the last hundred years that English has become a world language. In Shakespeare's time it was a «provincial» language of secondary importance with only 6 million native speakers. Nowadays over 300 million people speak it as a mother tongue.

[illegible]

- English is also spoken as a second language in the former British and US colonies. In a number of speakers (400 million) it is second only to Chinese. English is the major international language of communication in such areas as science, technology and business. It is the language of literature, education, modern music, and international tourism. English is the major language of diplomacy, it is one of the official languages of the United Nations organization and other political organizations.

Russia is integrating into the world community and the problem of learning English for the purpose of communication is especially urgent today.

One should say that English is not an easy language to learn. There is a big problem of spelling, of the large number of exceptions to any rule. This language is very idiomatic and the prepositions are terrible. English is one of those languages which may seem easy in the beginning, but then the bridge between basic knowledge and mastery takes a long time to cross.

But if you cross this bridge it will give you great satisfaction.
You will be able to speak to people from other countries, to read foreign authors in the original, which makes your outlook wider.

To know English today is absolutely necessary for every educated man, for every good specialist.
