

The background features several thick, flowing, curved lines in shades of blue and yellow, creating a dynamic, wave-like pattern that frames the central text.

Tag Questions

simulator

(ordinary verbs, positive)

4.1. ordinary verbs “play, go, etc”

- I go..... , don't I?
- He plays..... , doesn't he?
- She goes..... , doesn't she?
- It jumps..... , doesn't it?
- My pen costs..... , doesn't it?
- Missy sings..... , doesn't she?

I go to school number 22, don't I?

He plays the piano quite well, doesn't he?

She goes there very often, doesn't she?

It jumps like your dog, doesn't it?

My pen costs a fortune, doesn't it?

Missy sings only pop songs, doesn't she?

4.2. ordinary verbs “play, go, etc”

- We play , don't we?
- You run , don't you?
- They bring , don't they?
- The Briggs eat , don't they?
- Your books cost , don't they?
- My dad and I swim , don't we?

We play tennis in Maykop, don't we?

They bring it from Oslo, don't they?

You run like a sprinter, don't you?

The Briggs eat meat, don't they?

Your books cost a lot, don't they?

My brother and I swim every summer, don't we?

4.3. ordinary verbs “play, go, etc”

- I went..... , didn't I?
- He played..... , didn't he?
- She sent..... , didn't she?
- It jumped..... , didn't it?
- My pen flew..... , didn't it?
- Missy sang..... , didn't she?

I went to school number 22, didn't I?

He played the piano quite well, didn't he?

She sent there very often, didn't she?

It jumped like your dog, didn't it?

My pen flew a fortune, didn't it?

Missy sang only pop songs, didn't she?

4.4. ordinary verbs “play, go, etc”

- We played , didn't we?
- You ran , didn't you?
- They brought..... , didn't they?
- The Briggs ate..... , didn't they?
- Your books cost , didn't they?
- My dad and I swam.... , didn't we?

We played tennis in Maykop, didn't we?

You ran like a sprinter today, didn't you?

They brought it from Oslo, didn't they?

The Briggs ate meat yesterday, didn't they?

Your books cost a lot, didn't they?

My sister and I swam every summer, didn't we?

4.5. ordinary verbs “play, go, etc”

- I will go , won't I?
- He will play , won't he?
- She will send , won't she?
- It will jump , won't it?
- My pen will fly , won't it?
- Missy will sing , won't she?

I will go to school number won't I?
22,

He will play the piano at the party, won't he?

She will send the card tomorrow, won't she?

It will jump high, won't it?

My pen will fly to you, won't it?

Missy will sing for us, won't she?

4.6. ordinary verbs “play, go, etc”

- We will play , won't we?
- You will run , won't you?
- They will bring , won't they?
- The Briggs will eat , won't they?
- Your books will cost , won't they?
- My dad and I will swim , won't we?

We will play for Maykop, won't we?

You will run tomorrow's marathon, won't you?

They will bring it from Oslo, won't they?

The Briggs will eat meat with us, won't they?

Your books will cost a lot, won't they?

My sister and I will swim next week, won't we?