The Queen lives in Buckingham Palace in London. The Queen's official title is "Her Majesty Elizabeth II, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and her other territories and kingdoms, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith."

Elizabeth II is the oldest English (British) monarch in history. Today, she already ranks second in terms of the duration of her tenure on the throne of Britain after Queen Victoria, as well as second in the world in terms of length of stay by the head of state among the heads of state that are currently operating.

Elizabeth II is actively involved in charity work. Royal hobbies include dog breeding, photography, horseback riding, gardening, and travel. To maintain her prestige, the Queen actively travels in her own possessions, but also visits other countries.
