History

Lobachevsky State University of Nizhni Novgorod (UNN) was founded in 1916 as People's University of Russia. On January 30 (January 17 in the old calendar) we celebrate our Foundation Day.

Our university was the first higher education institution in Nizhny Novgorod. After the merger with Polytechnic Institute evacuated from Warsaw, the University was given a status of 'State University'. This UNN became the first university established in the Soviet state.

From 2010 to 2013, UNN launched 7 projects under the Russian Government's Mega grant programme to attract prominent international scientists to Russian higher education institution

UNN has been in the world's top 700 universities since 2011, according to QS World University Rankings. It is ranked 72nd in top 200 universities in 2014 QS World University Rankings: BRICS.
