On October 31st British people celebrate

Halloween

It's Halloween! It's Halloween!
The moon is full and bright
And we shall see what can't be seen
On any other night.

History of Halloween

Halloween means «holy evening»

All believe that there are a lot of ghosts, witches, skeletons on Halloween.

Children tell stories about. Boo!

Many families carve pumpkins and decorate the outside of their houses

On this day children wear costumes and masks. They go trick-or-treating....

Halloween decorations

Halloween is time for fun. Streets and houses are decorated with pumpkins.

Halloween symbols

The most popular costumes are of witches, skeletons,
black cats, ghosts.

Jack-o'-lanterns

Jack-o'-lanterns are out of pumpkins. Most Jack-o'-lanterns have a candle inside. It's scared!
