Jingle bells

Dashing through the snow
In a one-horse open sleigh
Over the fields we go
Laughing all the way.

Jingle bells, jingle bells!
Jingle all the way
Oh! What fun it is to ride
In a one-horse open sleigh!

Bells on bob-tail ring
Making spirits bright,
What fun it is to ride and sing
A sleighing song tonight!

A poem about Christmas

- White Christmas
- I'm dreaming of a white Christmas
Just like the ones I used to know
Where the treetops glisten
and children listen
To hear sleigh bells in the snow.

I'm dreaming of a white Christmas
With every Christmas card I write
May your days be merry and bright
And may all your Christmases be white.

I'm dreaming of a white Christmas
With every Christmas card I write
May your days be merry and bright
And may all your Christmases be white.

This day the Irish Celts celebrated their New year at that time, because they organized their year according to the agricultural calendar and marked the transition from one year to the next on October 31. In the year 835 A.D. the Roman Catholic Church made November 1st a church holiday to honor all the saints. This day is called All Saint's Day. Since that time many years have passed. Some traditions are gone, new traditions appeared.

The most popular customs of Halloween.

The most known customs is the tradition of dressing costume. On Halloween, when it was believed that ghosts came back to the earthly world, people thought that they would encounter ghosts if they left their houses. To avoid being recognized by these ghosts, people wore masks so that the ghosts would mistake them for fellow spirits. On Halloween, people placed bowls of food outside their homes to appease the ghosts and prevent them from attempting to enter their home.

Fire has always played an important part in Halloween. In the old days people lit bonfires to ward away evil spirits and some places they used to jump over the fire to bring good luck.

Today, we light candles in pumpkin and then put them outside our homes to ward off evil spirits.

Trick or Treat was first known as mischief Night. Halloween was a time for making mischief - many parts of England still recognize this date as Mischief Night - when children would knock on doors demanding a treat (Trick or Treat) and people would disguise themselves as witches or ghosts, in order to obtain food and money from nervous householders.

Halloween was sometimes called Nut crack Night or Snap Apple Night in England. Families would sit by the fire and tell stories while they ate apples and nuts.

Halloween's theme is spooky or scary things particularly involving death, magic, or mythical monsters. Halloween characters include ghosts, ghouls, witches, bats, black cats, owls, spiders, goblins, zombies, skeletons and demons, as well as Dracula and Frankenstein's monster. Homes are often decorated with these symbols around Halloween.

Black and orange are the traditional colors of Halloween.

Elements of the autumn season, such as pumpkins and scarecrows, are also symbols of Halloween. The jack-o'-lantern, is one of Halloween's most prominent symbols. Many families carve a pumpkin into a frightening face and place it on their home's doorstep after dark. The practice was intended to frighten away evil spirits or monsters.

HALLOWEEN RIDDLES

A witch in a black robe and hat, holding a broom, with a large orange pumpkin in the foreground.

My door is gone.
My windows cracked.
Ghosts float through walls
And then float back.
You hear strange noises:
Bam, bang, and whack!

I grew on a vine,
Right on the ground.
I have a big smile,
My face is round

I fly at night,
I hunt by sound,
I live in a cave,
And sleep upside down.
People are scared,
They shouldn't be.
I eat mice and bugs.
Please, don't hurt me

Like to stay
Just out of sight.
If you see me,
I might be white.
I float through houses
In the black of night...

My eyes are gold,
My fur is black,
I hiss and spit,
And arch my back.
My claws are sharp.
I might attack!

My hat is black,
My face is green,
My laugh is mean.
I ride a broom
On Halloween.
Who am I?
