Be careful when doing listening tasks in the exam. Don't just match a question to something in the recording because a word is the same. Think carefully about the meaning of the words and sentences you hear.

1. READ THIS FILM REVIEW AND FILL IN THE EIGHT GAPS. THERE IS ONE WORD OR PHRASE THAT YOU WILL NOT NEED TO USE.

City of Angels

Directed by Brad Silberling and photographed by John Seale, City of Angels falls into the category of romantic fantasy. The story is set in Los Angeles and the two protagonists are Seth,

Seth, ² _____ with all the other black-cloaked angels who watch over the city of Los Angeles, is charged with escorting the spirits of the dying to Heaven and helping the living cope with their daily problems. We meet the angels in the library where they eavesdrop on the thoughts of readers. Seth falls in love with the sensitive doctor, Maggie, and must choose between his immortality without ³ _____ the pain or the joy of physical existence and the option of becoming human.

⁴ _____ I particularly liked about this film was the excellent performance of the actors. ⁵ _____ the dialogues between the characters might seem simplistic, the emotions seen on the actors' faces tell us more than anything they might say. ⁶ _____, the photography in the film is very impressive. Each close-up shot seems to be steeped in meaning and I am positive that ⁷ _____ scenes will evoke deep emotions in every sensitive viewer.

I have seen City of Angels several times myself and I can strongly recommend it to anyone who likes watching good and engrossing films. 8 _____ is definitely worth their time. The ending is totally unexpected and will leave you speechless for a long time after the credits have finished rolling.
