О празднике

Уже в 15 веке в День Святого Валентина люди посылали друг другу открытки, сделанные из пергамента.

День Святого Валентина в Англии - это одновременно день поминовения мученичества Святого Валентина (14 Февраля 273 AD) и языческий праздник Луперкалия (15 Февраля) - фестиваль для молодых людей достигших брачного возраста, когда юноши тянули жребий для выбора девушки. Такое деление на пары длилось один год.

В настоящее время в День Святого Валентина люди посылают анонимные открытки и подарки чеповеку которым они восхищаются. В Англии проводятся праздничные мероприятия развлечениями на открытом воздухе.

Valentine s Day History

- Every February we celebrate Valentine's Day by giving flowers, candies, gifts and cards to those we love. We do this in honour of Saint Valentine. You may be wondering who is he? The history of Valentine's Day and its patron is shrouded in mystery. But we know that February has long been a month of romance. St.Valentine's Day, as we know it today, contains vestiges of both Christian and ancient Roman tradition.
- The story of Valentine's Day begins in the third century with an oppressive Roman emperor and a humble Christian martyr. The emperor was Claudius II Gothicus. The Christian was Valentinus.
- Claudius had ordered all Romans to worship state religion's idols, and he had made it a crime punishable by death to associate with Christians. But Valentinus was dedicated to the ideals of Christ, and not even the threat of death could keep him from practicing his beliefs. During the last weeks of Valentine's life a remarkable thing happened. One day a jailer for the Emperor of Rome knocked at Valentinus's door clutching his blind daughter in his arms. He had learned of Valentinus's medical and spiritual healing abilities, and appealed to Valentinus to treat his daughter's blindness. She had been blind since birth. Valentinus knew that her condition would be difficult to treat but he gave the man his word he would do his best. The little girl was examined, given an ointment for her eyes and a series of re-visits were scheduled. Seeing that he was a man of learning, the jailer asked whether his daughter, Julia, might also be brought to Valentinus for lessons. Julia was a pretty young girl with a quick mind. Valentinus read stories of Rome's history to her. He described the world of nature to her. He taught her arithmetic and told her about God. She saw the world through his eyes, trusted in his wisdom, and found comfort in his quiet strength.

- "Valentinus, does God really hear our prayers?" Julia said one day.
- "Yes, my child, He hears each one", he replied.
- "Do you know what I pray for every morning and every night?
- I pray that I might see. I want so much to see everything you' ve told me about!"
- "God does what is best for us if we will believe in Him", Valentinus said.
- "Oh, Valentinus, I do believe", Julia said intensely. "I do."
- She knelt and grasped his hand. They sat quietly together, each praying. Several weeks passed and the girl's sight was not ' restored. Then one day, Valentinus received a visit from Roman soldiers who arrested him, destroyed his medicines and admonished him for his religious beliefs. When the little girls father learned of his arrest and imprisonment, he wanted to intervene but there was nothing he could do. On the eve of his death, Valentinus wrote a last note to Julia - knowing his execution was imminent. Valentinus asked the jailer for a paper, pen and ink. He quickly jotted a farewell note and handed it to the jailer to give to his blind daughter. He urged her to stay close to God, and he signed it "From Your Valentine". His sentence was carried out the next day, February 14, 270 A.D., near a gate that was later named Porta Valentini in his memory.
- When the jailer went home, he was greeted by his little girl. The little girl opened the note and discovered a yellow crocus inside. The message said, 'From your Valentine'. As the little girl lookeddown upon the crocus that spilled into her palm she saw brilliant colors for the first time in her life! The girl eyesight was restored!
- A miracle! He was buried at what is now the Church of Praxedes in Rome. It is said that Julia herself planted a pink-blossomed almond tree near his grave. Today, the almond tree remains a symbol of abiding love and friendship. In 496 Pope Gelasius I named February 14 as Saint Valentine's Day. On each Valentine's Day, messages of affection, love and devotion are still exchanged around the world.
- Although the truth behind the Valentine legends is murky, the stories certainly emphasize his appeal as a sympathetic, heroic, and most importantly, romantic figure. It' s no surprise that by the MiddleAges, Valentine was one of the most popular saints in England and
- France.

Songs

- You Are My Sunshine
- The other night dear, as I lay sleeping
- I dreamed I held you in my arms
- When I awoke, dear, I was mistaken
- So I hung my head and I cried.
- You are my sunshine, my only sunshine
- You make me happy when skies are gray
- You'll never know dear, how much I miss you
- Please don't take my sunshine away
- I'll always love you and make you happy,
- If you will only say the same.
- But if you leave me to love another,
- You'll regret it all some day:
- CHORUS
- You told me once, dear, you really loved me
- And no one else could come between.
- But not you've left me and love another;
- You have shattered all my dreams:
- CHORUS

Say I Love You In A Song by Jim Croce

- well, I know it's kinda late, I hope I didn't wake ya
- what I gotta say can't wait, I know ya'd understand
- 'cause every time I try to tell you, the words just came out wrong
- so I have to say I love ya, in a song
- yeah, I know it's kinda strange, every time I'm near ya
- I just run outta things to say, I know ya'd understand
- 'cause every time I try to tell you, the words just came out wrong
- so I have to say I love ya, in a song
- 'cause, every time the time was right all the words just came out wrong
- so I have to say I love ya, in a song
- yeah, I know it's kinda late, I hope I didn't wake ya
- but there's something that I just gotta say, I know ya'd understand
- every time I try to tell you, the words just came out wrong
- so I have to say I love ya, in a song

Poems

- MY VALENTINE
- By M.C. Parsons

- I have a little Valentine
That someone sent to me.
It's pink and white
And red and blue.
- And pretty as can be.
- Forget-me-nots
Are round the edge,
And tiny roses, too;
And such a lovely piece of lace,
The very palest blue.
- And in the centre
There's a heart
As red as red can be!
And on it's written
All in gold, "To You,
With love from Me".

by mother Teresa

- At all times and within reach of every hand!
Spread love everywhere you go
First of all in your own house
Give love to your children
- To your husband or wife
To a next door neighbour
Let no one ever cote cote to you
Without leaving happier
Be the living expression of God's
Kindness, kindness in your face
Kindness in your eyes
Kindness in your smile
Kindness in your warm greeting!

- To
By Percy Bysshe Shelley

Music, when the soft voices die,
Vibrates in the memory-
Odours, when the sweet violets sicken,
Live within the sense they quicken.
Rose leaves, when the rose is dead,
Are heaped for the beloved's bed;
And so thy thoughts, when thou art gone,
Love itself shall slumber on.

- The Passionate Shepherd to His Love
Christopher Marlowe

Come live with me, and be my love,
And we will all the pleasures prove
That valleys, groves, hills and fields,
Woods, or steepy mountain yields.

And we will sit upon the rocks,
Seeing the shepherds feeds their flocks
By shallow rivers, to whose falls
Melodious birds sing madrigals.

And I will make thee beds of roses,
And a thousand fragrant posies,
A cap of flowers, and a kirtle
Embroidered all with leaves of myrtle;

A gown made of the finest wool
Which from our pretty lambs we pull,
Fair lined slippers for the cold,
With buckles of the purest gold;

A belt of straw and ivy buds,
With coral clasps and amber studs;
And if these pleasures may thee move,
Come live with me, and be my love.

The shepherd-swains shall dance and sing
For thy delight each May morning.
If these delights thy mind may move,
Then live with me, and be my love.
