

Anapa

Anapa is a resort town in the South of Russia, located on the Black sea coast in the Krasnodar region. The city of regional subordination and the administrative center of the municipality resort city of Anapa. Climatic and balneological resort, mainly for children. In 2011 he was awarded the title of "City of military glory".

In the resort town of Anapa developed infrastructure of recreation and hospitality. A large number of resorts that operate year-round, boarding houses, recreation centers, large and small hotels. The length of the beach is 42 kilometers of sand and 12 kilometers of pebbly. There are many shops selling various Souvenirs and beach equipment. In 2011, Anapa recognized as "Best Spa resort in the world" according to FEMTEC (International Association of climatotherapy and balneotherapy).[48][49] In the vicinity of Anapa developed tourist infrastructure: African village, Greek village, Armenian village, a Unique dinosaur Park, Cypress lake in Sukko, Utrish Dolphinarium in the Big Utrish, diving clubs and horseback riding. There are 2 water parks and an Oceanarium in the town. Also in 2017, the construction of the Ferris wheel with a height of 70 meters, the second highest in Russia, was completed.[50] In 2017, according to the results of the research of the real estate portal Domofond.ru, Anapa is recognized as a leader in the quality of life in Russia.

In the city there are many catering establishments (cafes, canteens, bars, restaurants). The city has a passenger sea port of Anapa (for small-tonnage pleasure craft), a bus station. Near Anapa are Anapa international airport (between the village and the village Tsybanobalka Red Kurgan) and railway station Anapa (in the village of Upper Dzhemete). Often following in Anapa passengers use the railway station tunnel, located on the line Crimean — Novorossiysk in the village of Verkhnebakansky 35 km from Anapa.

Thank you for your attention!