It is a very sentimental unofficial holiday, which is celebrated on the 14th February by those who believe in love and friendship. Boys and girls, husbands and wives, just friends send nice cards to each other with warm greetings on the day.

No one can trace origin of this European tradition, but the legend tells us a story of an Italian monk Valentine who helped young people to marry breaching thus the ruler's law. St Valentine was executed but people still remember him and celebrate this saint's day as a day of love.

The History

The feast of St. Valentine is based on the legend of the Holy Martyr Valentine.

Being in prison, he has healed from blindness the jailer's daughter and fell in love with her. St. Valentine wrote a letter to her in a form of heart. Since then, love letters became known as the “valentines”.

Traditions

- In some countries, a young woman may receive a gift of clothing from a young man. If she keeps the gift, it means she will marry him.
- If you cut an apple in half and count how many seeds are inside, you will also know how many children you will have.
- In Wales wooden love spoons were carved and given as gifts on February, 14. Hearts, keys were favourite decorations on the spoons.
- If a young woman saw a robin flying overhead on Valentine's Day, it meant she would marry a sailor.
- If a woman saw a goldfish, she would marry a millionaire.

Cupid is the most famous Valentine symbol, who is known as a mischievous, winged child whose arrows signify desires and emotions of love. Cupid aims those arrows at Gods and humans, causing them to fall deeply in love. In ancient Greece he was known as Eros, the young son of Aphrodite, the goddess of love and beauty. To the Romans he was Cupid, and his mother was Venus.
