

A trip to London

The views of London

Trafalgar Square

Trafalgar Square

]One of the most famous attractions in London

]Nelson's Column

]In the middle of the Square

]The famous British admiral

]To attract many tourists from other countries

The National Gallery

The National Gallery

London, Trafalgar Square, 2007

- To be situated in Trafalgar Square
- To be famous all over the world
- To contain real masterpieces of art and sculpture
- To come to the gallery to see its treasures
- To admire all exhibits of the world famous collection of the gallery

The Houses of Parliament

The Houses of Parliament

The country's leaders speak

To stand beside the river Thames

To see them from Westminster
Abbey

To be the seat of the government

Big Ben is the clock tower

Big Ben

Big Ben

- To stand near Westminster Palace
- To be built in the 19-th century (1885)
- To have a very loud bell
- To weigh more than 13 tons
- Sir Benjamin Hall
- In honour of Sir Benjamin Hall (the tallest man)

Westminster Abbey

Westminster Abbey

- To be situated in the centre of the British capital
- A world famous place of interest in London
- To attract a lot of visitors
- To be founded in 1065 by Edward the Confessor
- To be buried in the Abbey (all the English kings)
- To be a symbol of England

Buckingham Palace

Buckingham Palace

- One of the most remarkable sights of the British capital
- The official London residence of the British Royal family
- To see the Changing of the Guard
- To attract a great number of Londoners and tourists from other countries

St. Paul's Cathedral

St.Paul's Cathedral

- ❖ One of the most beautiful Renaissance building in the world
- ❖ To attract visitors from all over the world
- ❖ To contain many fine paintings, sculptures, monuments and works of art
- ❖ To be finished in 1710 (the building of the Cathedral)

The Tower of London

The Tower of London

- To be a very old sight
- To be famous for the nightly ritual of the Ceremony of the Key
- To be a royal palace, a castle, a fortress, a prison (in the past)
- To be a museum (now)
- All British kings lived (in the past)

The British Museum

The British Museum

To be the largest and the most important cultural centre in the world

To be founded in 1753

To be opened to the public in 1759

To house now more than seven million objects illustrating human history

To be famous for its rich library till 1998

Tower Bridge

Tower Bridge

- ◆ To stretch across the Thames
- ◆ A historical place of interest
- ◆ To have two towers
- ◆ To attract a lot of tourists
- ◆ To make the view of London more attractive

Parks of London

Parks of London

London is very rich in

To be full of trees, grass, flowers and water

To be the property of the Royal family

To be famous for outdoor entertainments(Hyde Park)

To find London Zoo(in Regent's Park)

To be the oldest London park(St.James's Park)