

Welcome to New York

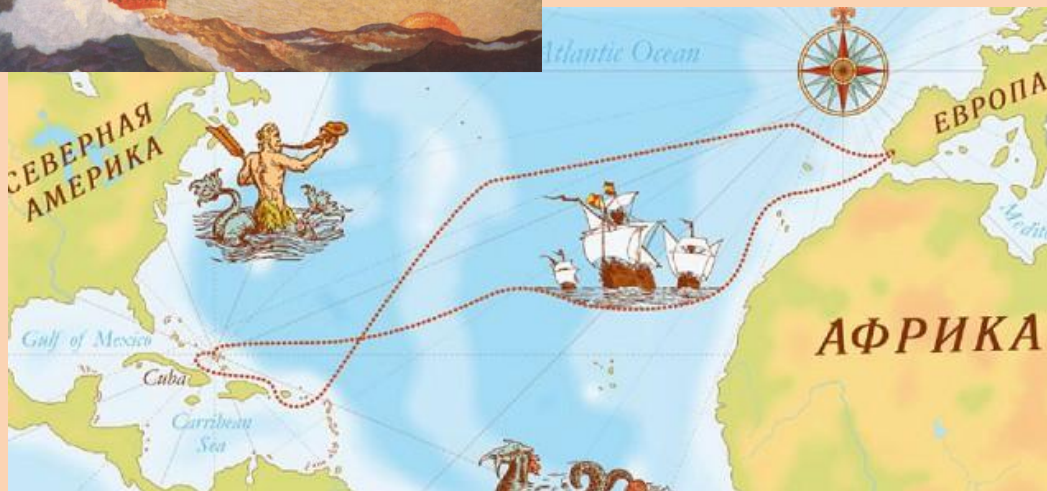

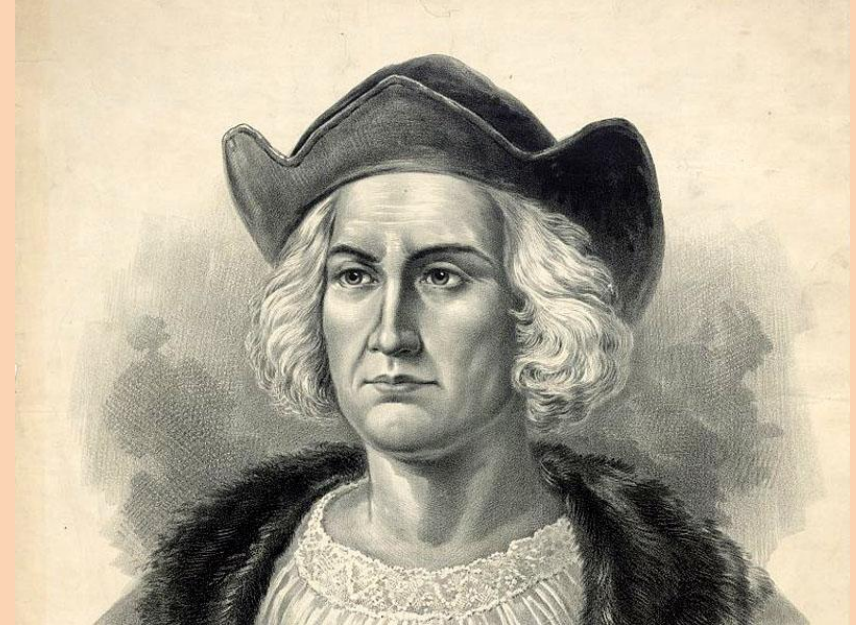

- It is the fourth largest country in the world (after Russia, Canada, and China).
- One of the biggest cities in this country. It has the nickname "Big apple".
- One of the most famous statues in the world.

New York and its Statue of Liberty

The discovery of America

Columbus (sail) west across the Atlantic, as he (hope) to get India. This was how he (discover) a new land. When he and his men (arrive), they (meet) Native Americans and (give) them the name of Indians. The Indian tribes (hunt) animals, (grow) plants and (be) fairly peaceful. They (think) the land where they lived (belong) to them. So, later they (fight) for it with Europeans.

Let's find out more about
New York

Answer

- How many islands are there?
- What island is the biggest?
- How big is it?
- How many people do live there?
- How many languages are there?
- Is it a popular city?
- How many visitors do arrive there?

Manhattan

The Metropolitan Museum

Chinatown

Little Italy

The Statue of Liberty
Liberty Island

Fifth Avenue

Central Park

Today we are going to learn about the:

Statue of Liberty

Thank you!

