

«It has no mouth but it speaks. It is not alive, but it can be a good friend. It is not a tree, but it has leaves...»

“Books in our life”

Look in a Book

Look
in a book
and you will see
words
and magic and mystery.

Look
in a book
and you will find sense
and nonsense
of every kind.

Look
in a book
and you will know
all the things
that can help you grow.

In a Story Book

At night when sunshine goes away,
And it's too dark for me to play,
I like to come inside, and look For new friends in a story book.

helps to solve problems

boring

discovers new things

depressing

educates us

badly written

gives a headache

takes a lot of time

helps to escape from everyday life problems

Let's sing!!!

My books are just standing on bookshelves
That I'm always happy to read My favourite's under the pillow.
A good book is what I need.

Chorus: Read books, read books,
They were invented to read, to read.
Read books, read books,
A good books is what I need.
The book that was written in English Improves your knowledge as well.
It teaches your lexics and grammar
And how the English words spell.

Charles Kingsley:

“Except a living man,
there is nothing more wonderful than a book”.

A close-up photograph of a white envelope. A red wax seal, which has been broken, runs along the top edge of the envelope flap. The words "THE END" are printed in a black, serif, all-caps font on the front of the envelope, angled slightly upwards to the right.

THE END

Thank you for the lesson.
