biography

- Hatiko was born on November 10, 1923 in the Japanese Prefecture of Akita. The farmer decided to give the puppy Professor Hidesaburo Ueno worked at Tokyo University. The Professor gave the pup a nickname Hatiko. When Hatiko grew up, everywhere it certainly followed its master. He daily went to the city for work, so the dog initially walked him to the entrance to the station Shibuya, and then at 3pm they returned there to meet the owner.
