

British and Russian Holidays

MATCH THE WORDS

['kristməs]

['θæŋks'gɪvɪŋ 'deɪ]

[hələʊ'ɪn]

['nju: 'jɜ:]

['fa:ðəz 'deɪ]

['meɪ 'deɪ]

['mʌðəz 'deɪ]

['i:stə]

['seɪnt 'væləntaɪn 'deɪ]

['eɪprɪl 'fu:lz 'deɪ]

Рождество

День благодарения

День Всех Святых

Новый год

День отца

Майский день

День матери

Пасха

День святого Валентина

Первое апреля

Make up word combinations

Christmas

New Year

Cake

Date

Song

Dress

Present

Tree

Card

Food

Phonetic

One, two, three,
It's a Christmas tree!
Three, two, one,
Christmas is fun!
Christmas' magic,
Christmas' fun,
Merry Christmas everyone!

*Раз, два, три,
Это Рождественская елка!
Три, два, один,
Рождество – это веселье!
Рождество – это волшебство,
Рождество — это веселье,
Всем – веселого Рождества!*

Name the date when
British people celebrate
Christmas? / Russian people?

Review the dialogue and ask questions

Katya: You are going to Britain tomorrow, aren't you?

Jim: Yes, Christmas is coming and I want to spend the holiday with my grandparents.

Katya: Christmas is an important holiday in Britain, isn't it?

Jim: Yes, it's an exciting day. We usually wake up early on the 25th of December and look at the foot of the bed. The stocking is always full of little presents. Last year my little sister put a pillowcase. Under the bed to get more presents from Father Christmas. And in the morning it was full! She found all of her presents, fruit, nuts, biscuits, and sweets in the pillowcase. She was very happy.

Katya: You said Father Christmas, didn't you?

Jim: Yes, I did. There's also another name for Father Christmas in Britain — Santa Claus. In Christmas stories he lives in the North Pole. On Christmas Eve he visits every house and brings presents. My little sister and my parents leave a glass of milk and a plate of biscuits for him in the kitchen.

Katya: In Russia Ded Moroz brings presents to the children. He lives in Velikiy Ustyug and rides a beautiful sleigh.

Jim: Yes, that's right. My family and I visited Velikiy Ustyug last week. It was a very nice trip. Where do you find the presents from Ded Moroz?

Katya: We find the presents under the New Year tree on the 1st of January.

Jim: Father Christmas and Ded Moroz work hard in December and on the 1st of January, don't they?

Katya: Of course they do, but then they have an 11 - month holiday.

Compare Father Christmas and Ded Moroz.

What do they have in common?
How do they differ?
Complete the table

Father Christmas	Ded Moroz
	1/

Traditional British food

Christmas cake

Turkey

Pudding

Traditional Russian food

Goose

Jellied minced meat

Olivier

Tangerine

Fill in the blanks:

My elder sister had to wait
For celebration birthday
Her room was in an awful
mess,
She couldn't find her birthday
...
She asked my mum, "What will you make?"
And mother answered,
"Birthday ...".
If I were rich, if I were king,
I would present my sister ...

Compare:

- My elder sister had to wait
- For celebration birthday date.
- Her room was in an awful mess,
- She couldn't find her birthday dress
- She asked my mum, "What will you make?"
- and mother answered, "Birthday cake".
- If I were rich, if I were king,
- I would present my sister ring.

New Year's wishes

Happy New Year!

Marry Christmas!

Wish you a Bright and
Happy New Year!

Thank you for your hard work!
Well done!

Present Continuous

Remember Present Continuous!!!

Am

Is

are

+ Форма глагола(play) + ing (playing)

Replace the pictures by the words

Hello, Nikita

There are a lot of holidays in every country. For example, New Year's Day is always connected with our hopes & dreams. It's pleasant to get on New Year's Eve. I usually get many nice & useful things from my parents, such as  ,  . I prepare  for them too.

I like to decorate  with  ,  and a big  on the top.

My mother makes a tasty  for supper. I help her to lay the table.

We are waiting for  with a big  of surprises.

Best wishes, Dan

Look at the pictures and say what people are doing

