

Why we study English?

In the present study English many, knowing that the knowledge of the language necessary.

English today is considered the international language
of business, technology, financial and economic development. It is for the reason more and more people strive to be fluent in this language

For example, a growing number of companies are trying to attract into your business, foreign investment, to create a common enterprise or to sell some shares to foreign companies. Your new employers are interested in communicating with you in English. You in turn can ask the following question: "Why don't they learn your language?". The answer is very simple: English is the "language of business" and if you want to be its direct participant, you should adhere to generally accepted rules.

A large number of books as an artistic and technical published it in English, later of course there are other translations, but the translated text in contrast to the original language are not always able to fully convey the message of the author.

Today, English is one of the most common languages of our universe. In the world there is no airport or air traffic control service, technology or sports, where they did not dominate the English. He is also the universal language of the Internet, as most e-books and information can be found in this language.
