THE HOKEY-POKEY

You put your right foot in,
You put your right foot out;
You put your right foot in,
And you shake it all about.
You do the Hokey-Pokey,
And you turn yourself around.
That's what it's all about!
You put your left foot in,
You put your left foot out;
You put your left foot in,
And you shake it all about.
You do the Hokey-Pokey,
And you turn yourself around.
That's what it's all about!
You put your right hand in,
You put your right hand out;
You put your right hand in,
And you shake it all about.
You do the Hokey-Pokey,
And you turn yourself around.

- That's what it's all about!
- You put your left hand in,
- You put your left hand out;
- You put your left hand in,
- And you shake it all about.
- You do the Hokey-Pokey,
- And you turn yourself around.
- That's what it's all about!
- You put your head in,
- You put your head out;
- You put your head in,
- And you shake it all about.
- You do the Hokey-Pokey,
- And you turn yourself around.
- That's what it's all about!
- You put your whole self in,
- You put your whole self out;
- You put your whole self in,
- And you shake it all about.
- You do the Hokey-Pokey,
- And you turn yourself around.
- That's what it's all about

explain English proverb

You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink.

translate and read in turns

Boy or girl

A: Just look at that young person with the short hair and blue jeans. Is it a boy or a girl?

B: It's a girl. She's my daughter.

A: Oh, I'm sorry, sir. I didn't know that you were her father.

B: I'm not. I'm her mother.

"Okay your father
managed to get a mouse
Now how do we use it?"

I can explain...
