LIFE IS TO BE LIVED

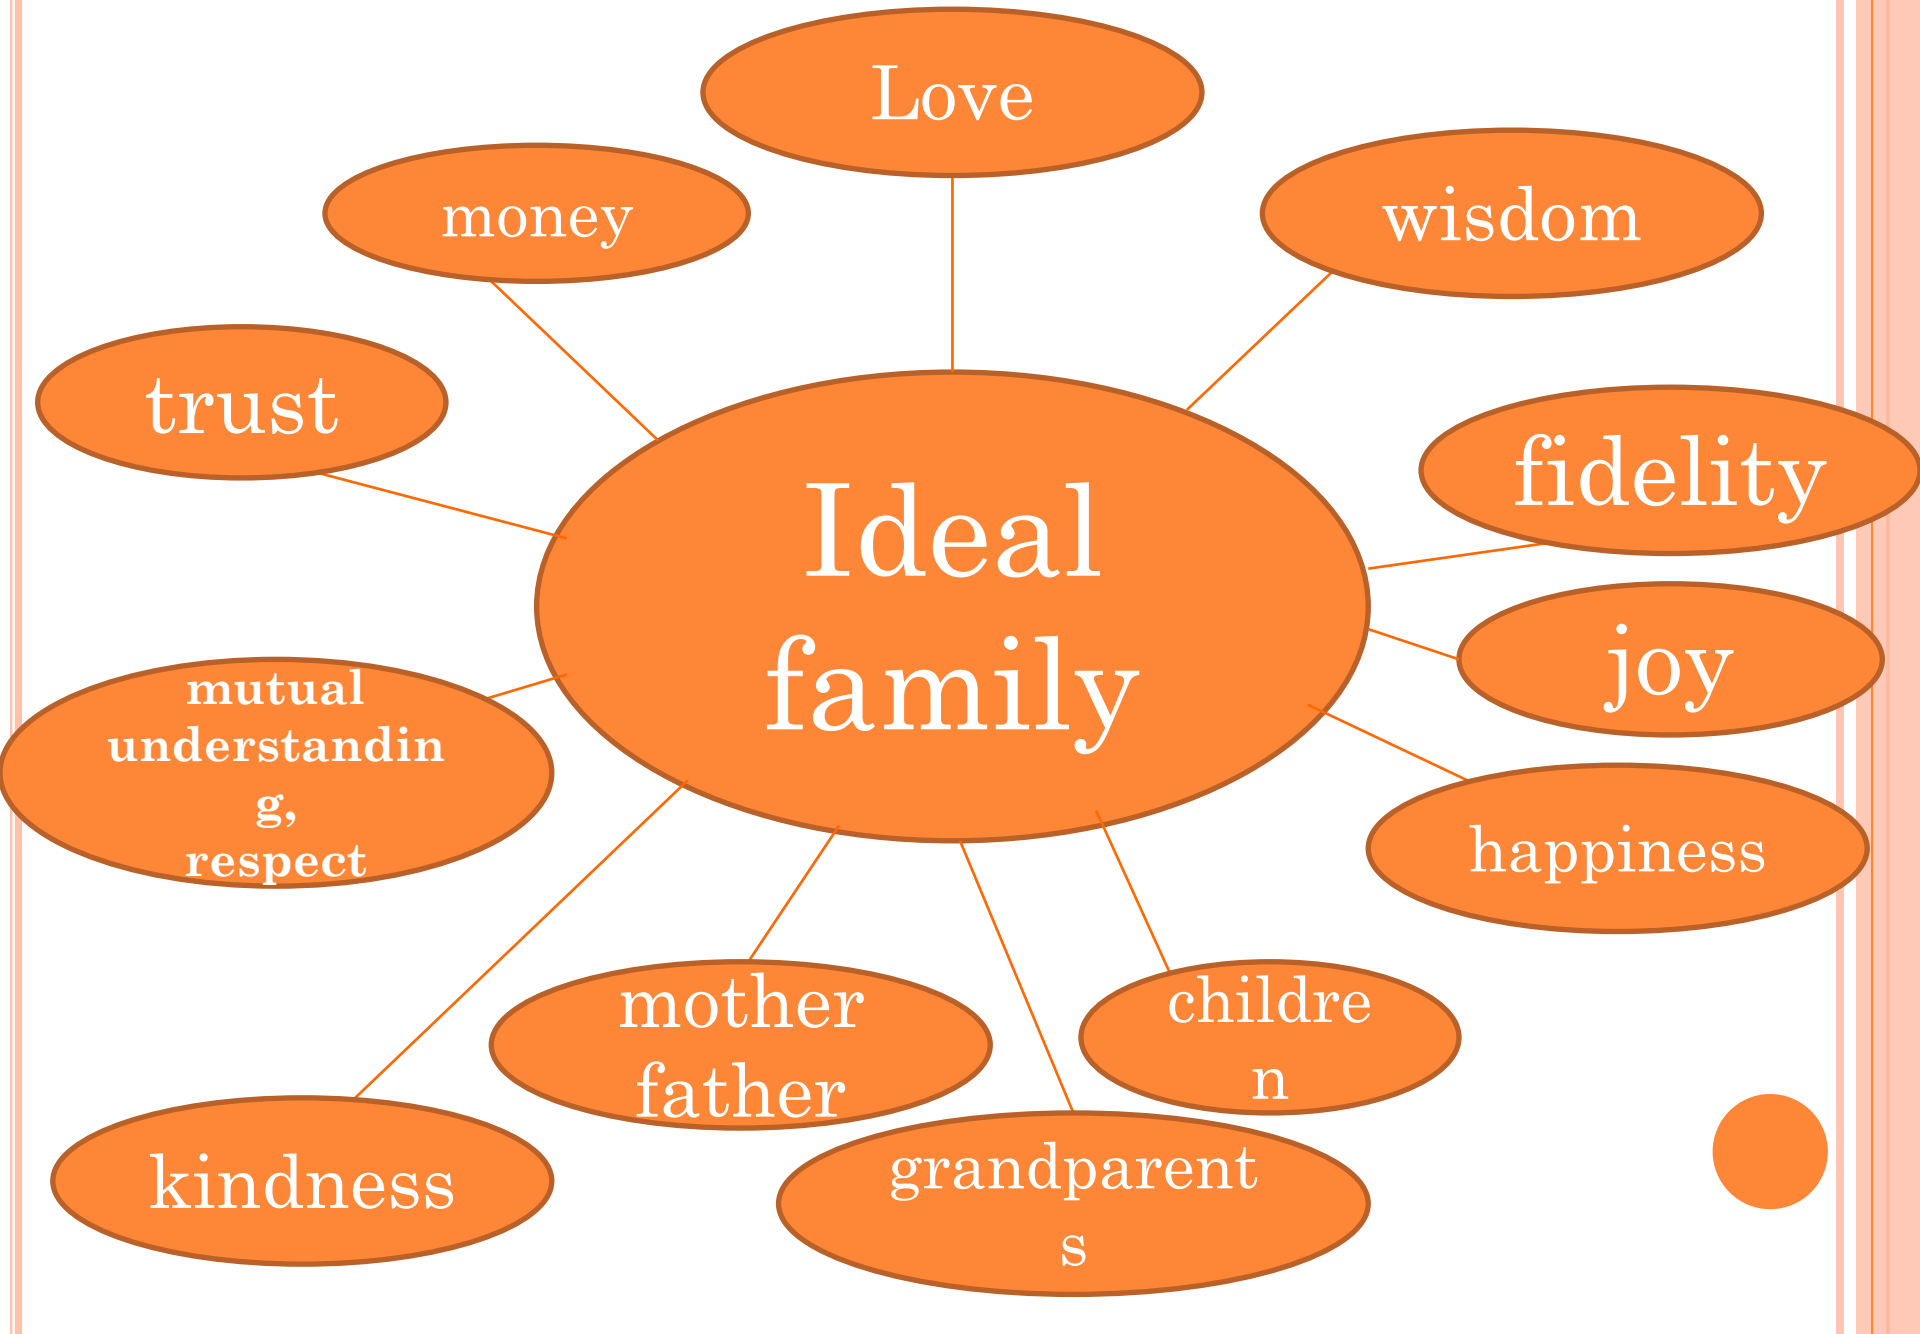

Quotation:

Accidents will happen in the best-regulated families.

Charles Dickens

Complete the diagram:

Love
money
wisdom
trust
Ideal family
fidelity
joy
mutual understanding, respect happiness
mother father
children
kindness
grandparents

Objectives:

- Cognitive:

  Students will be able:

- to generate ideas on the topic of the lesson.
- to describe the main characters and relations between them, will compare the parents' existence and family life of their son.

- Psycho – motor:

  Students will be able:

- to hold a conversation on the topic, to perform exercises based on the listened text.

- Affective:

  Students will be able:

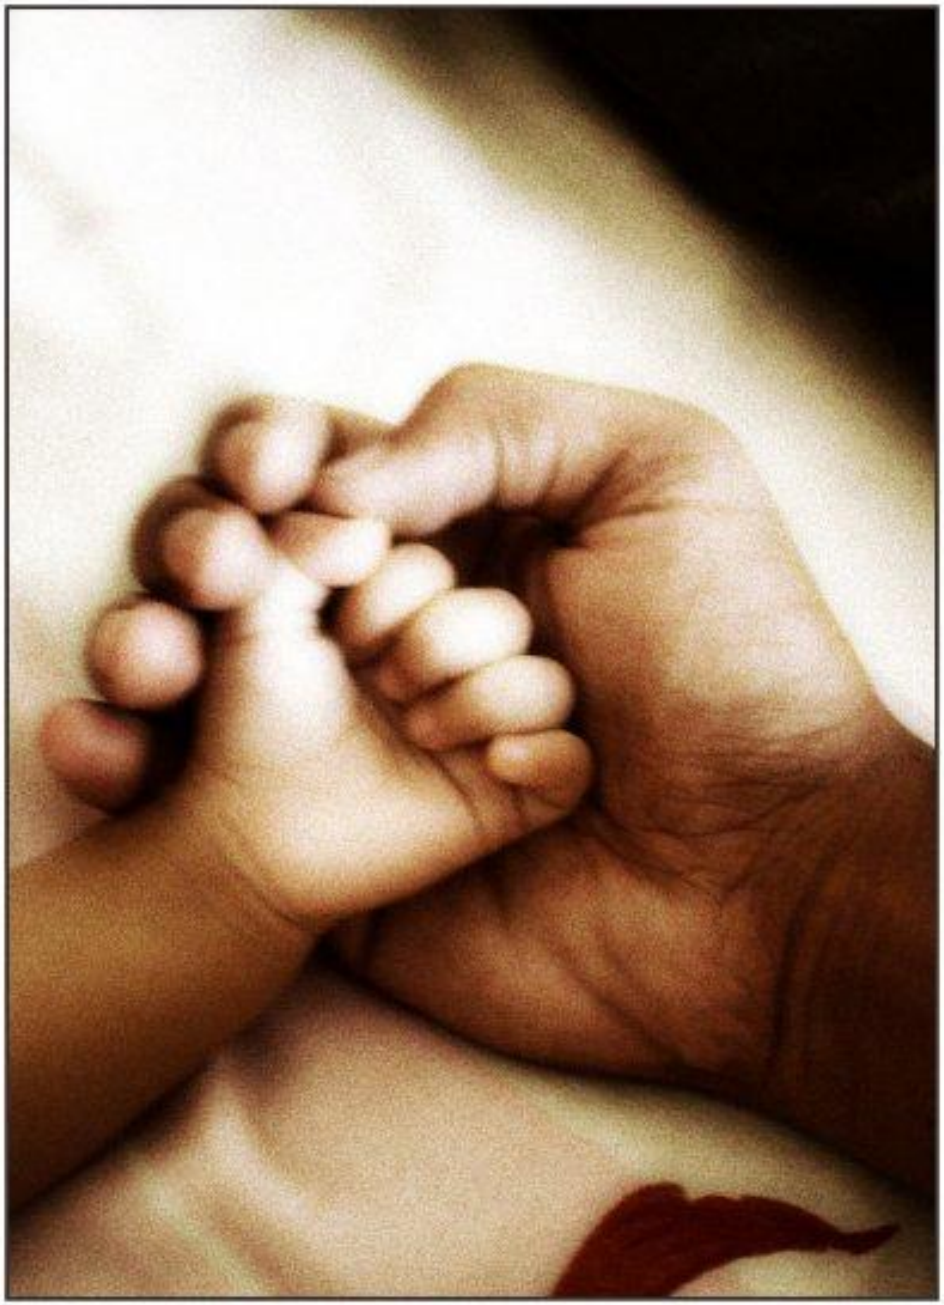

- to form their point of view toward family relationships.
- to realize what kind of relations they must have with their parents.

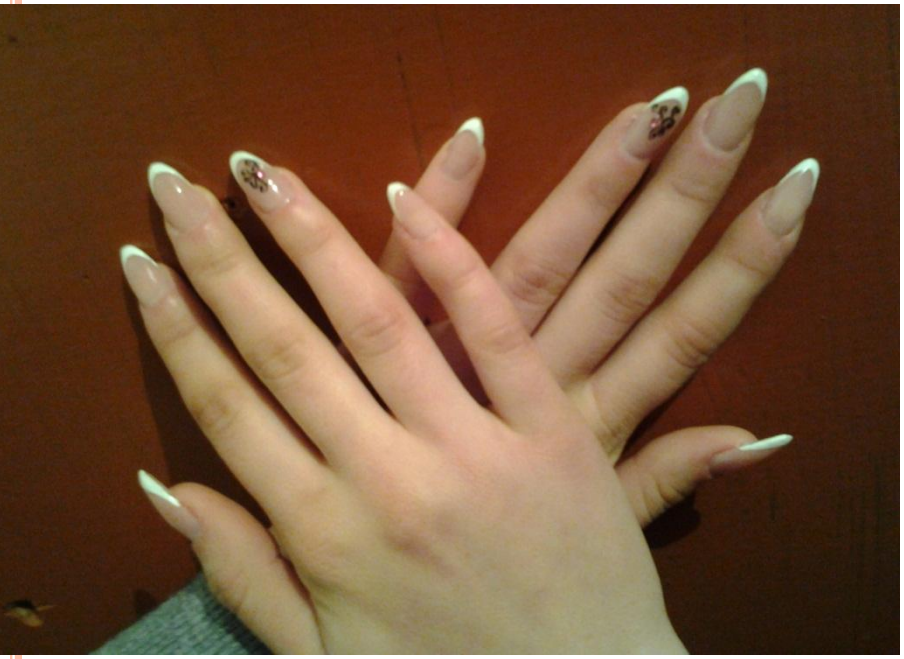

The most beautiful hands in the world

dreamstime.com

Guess

the meaning of the words

1 АПРЕЛЯ
БЕРЕГИ ТЫЛЫ!!
ОТКРЫТКИ@mail.ru
cards.mail.ru

Juggle

to play tricks with/on

rustle

rustle

Soft sound of things gently rubbing together

bustle

bustle

To move quickly

bicker (v)

bicker

To quarrel

wilt

wil
t

To lose energy, to slow down

wistful

wistful

Longing, yearning

Sulky (adj)

sulky

Silent and bad-humoured

slump

slump

To fall heavily (in a seat)

scrub (v)

scru
b

to clean by rubbing

gnarled

gnarled

Twisted and

Scan the text and find out the following:

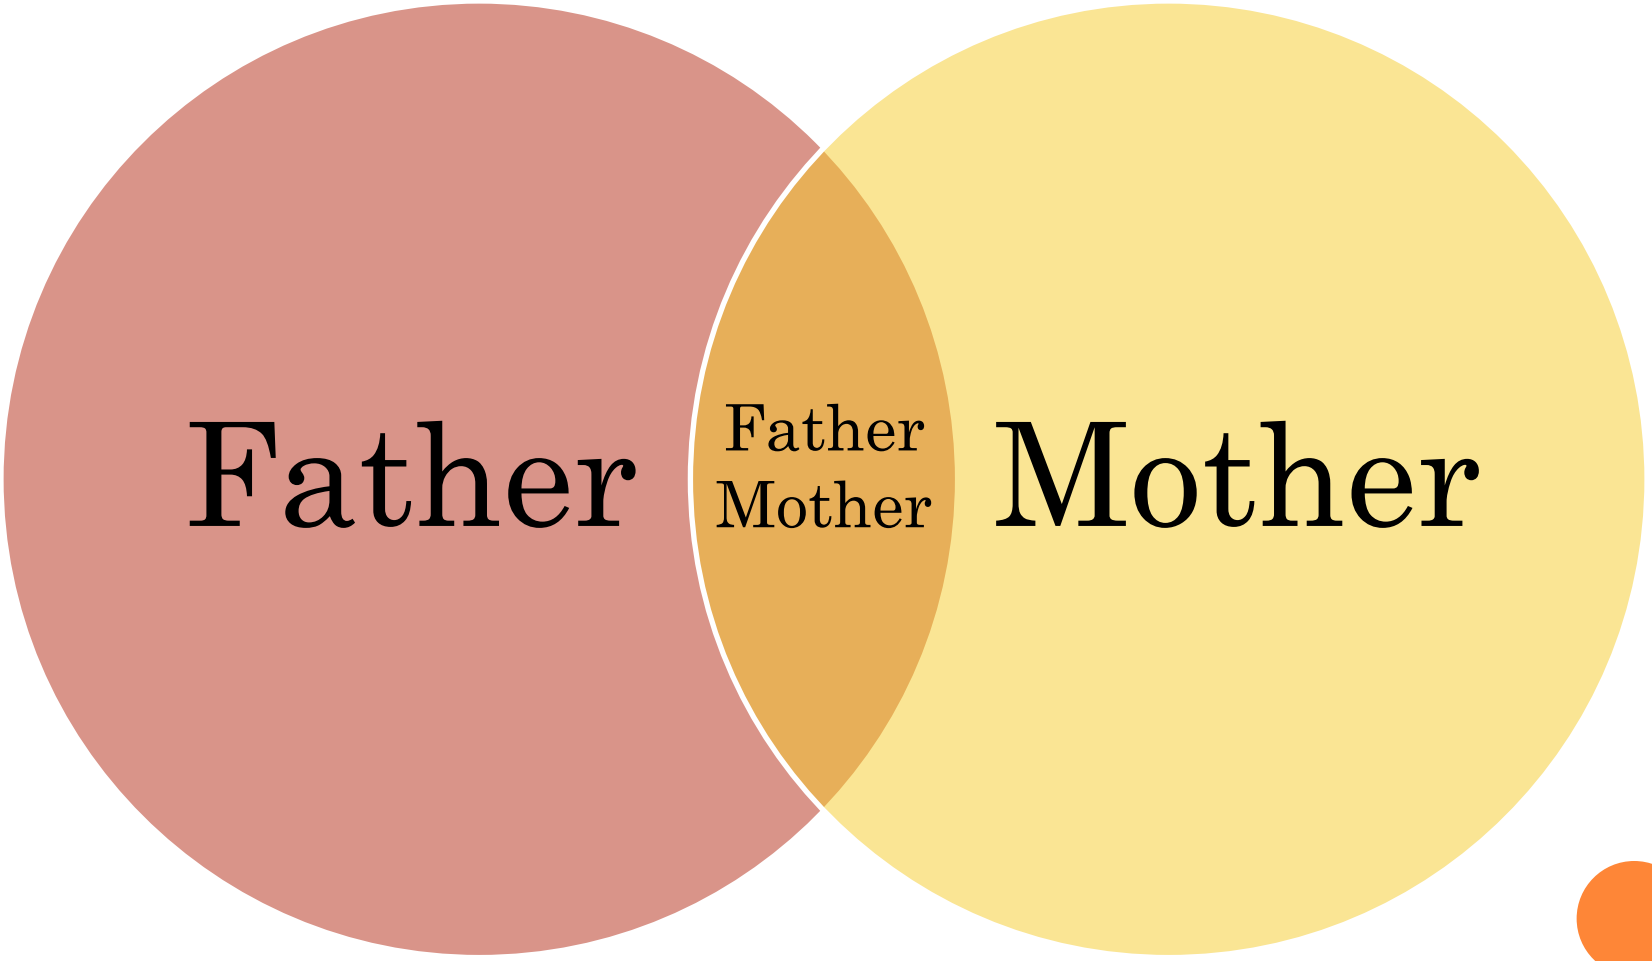

How old the parents were

How they behaved while on the trips

What their son mostly wondered about

Why he brought them Cape scallops

Describe the two parents

Guess the meanings of the words and expressions

1. Hopped on a bus
2. she looked gloomy
3. a rebuffed lover
4. it was rather refreshing
5. it began to pour rain
6. I'll fix him
7. roam around downtown
8. he deserted her for another woman
9. I had a glimpse of

a) heavy rain
b) to walk
c) to think you have seen somebody
d) different, new
e) to get on a bus
f) rejected boyfriend (girlfriend)
g) she looked sad
h) to leave somebody
i) to put in order

Hopped on a bus - to get on a bus

- she looked gloomy - she looked sad

- a rebuffed lover - rejected boyfriend (girlfriend)

- it was rather refreshing - different, new

- it began to pour rain - heavy rain

- I'll fix him - to put in order

- roam around downtown - to walk

- he deserted her for another woman - to leave somebody

- I had a glimpse of - to think you have seen somebody

Predict the end of the text

completing the sentences

- 1. Father said he had been to (the shop, a movie, a restaurant, a friend of his).
- 2. He handed mother a package. It was (a box of chocolates, a brooch, a bottle of lotion, a watch, a pair of earrings).
- 3. What a lovely (watch, brooch, bottle), mother exclaimed and she beamed.
- 4. To father, mother's (eyes, cheeks, ears, hands) have been the ones of a young woman, of a woman he loved.
- 5. Although they were gnarled and rough, mother's (eyes, cheeks, hands) were as velvet to father, and he wanted to keep them way.
- 6. The son decided to go home as he as sure that his parents would (quarrel again, prefer no company, make it up themselves.)

- Think and tell why are the characters given no names?

- Do you think father really likes mother?

- Does father observe that mother's hands are rough from years of work?

- How much does the son know about his parents' relationships?

- What has the son learned from this day's experience?

- Do you think people should quarrel on such trifles?