The 25-th of January is the birthday of the greatest Scottish poet, Robert Burns. This date is usually celebrated in all English-speaking countries.

BURNS NIGHT 25th January

The most popular poem among teenagers from all over the world is ...

O my Luve's like a red, red rose...

After his death the poems were translated into different languages. In Russian they were translated by Mikhalkov, Bagritsky, Fedotov. But the best interpretations were made by Marshak. And everyone doesn't know that Robert Burns – the author of popular songs such as....

My heart's in the Highlands

By Robert
Burns

Every Burns Night finishes with the Scottish national anthem
“Auld Lang Syne”
(«Старая дружба»)
which is sung at the parties and meetings
all over the world.

"Auld Lang Syne".

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to min'?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And auld lang syne?

Refrain.

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne.
We'll tak' a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.
Thank you, goodbye!

Robert
