AN ENGLISHMAN'S HOME IS HIS CASTLE

Урок в 6 классе

Учитель английского языка

Горбунова Ольга Юрьевна

House or home?

Fill in house or home

1. How many rooms are there in your … ?
2. What's your … town? – Bugulma.
3. What kind of … have you got?
4. I'll be … all day Tuesday.
5. I live in the beautiful three-bedroom … .
6. There is no place like … .
7. On the way … from school, I met Sue.

English proverbs about home

Match English proverbs

- An Englishman's home is his castle.
- East or West home is best.
- Every bird likes its own nest.
- Every dog is a lion at home.
- The wider the roam, the welcomer home.
- Men make houses, women make homes.

with Russian equivalents

- Всякому мила своя сторона.
- Мужчины создают дома, а женщины – домашний очаг.
- Мой дом – моя крепость.
- Всяк кулик на своем болоте велик.
- Всяк кулик свое болото хвалит.
- В гостях хорошо, а дома лучше.

Kinds of houses

Detached house

Terraced house

Semi-detached house

Block of flats

New vocabulary

neighbourhood ['neibəhud] – соседство

residential area [ˌrezi'denʃəl 'eəriə] – район частных домов

a restaurant ['restrɔ:ŋ] – ресторан

at the back - сзади

at the front – спереди

Mr Philpott's house

Fill in the missing words.

Mr Philpott … not far from … in the area called Bloomsbury. It's very close to a beautiful … . Bloomsbury is a … area. It's popular with … . There are a lot of …, some … and souvenir … .

Mr Philpott and his family live in a … house. They have three …, a …, a … and a … . There are two … near the house.

Kinds of houses

Castle

Manor house

Palace
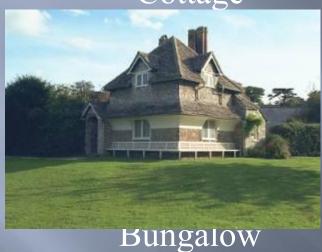

Tudor house

Kinds of houses

Cottage

▣ Georgian house

Bungalow

▣ Victorian house

- .

- You see a big variety of English houses. A lot of the houses are very old, some of them are several centuries, but they look very beautiful. They are the places people live in. Englishmen like their houses, they treat them as children. No doubt, «My house is my castle» - is the motto of every Englishman.