English in my future life and profession

London

Knowledge of modern languages plays an important role in the intellectual and human enrichment of different specialists.

I dream to enter the Amur State University at the faculty of journalism. I am going to be a journalist and I do my best to make my dream come true.

*Politicians care of the light future,
About the light past - historians,
About the light present - journalists.*

Speaker

At the same time most of population is interested in other people's life. That's why journalists think of numerous questions for interviews with celebrities and famous people. Having an inquisitive mind I'd be happy to hold an interview with outstanding persons

English for job

English is important for me not only in this moment, but also in the future. I'm sure I'll need language to find a very good job!
