Let's go to London the Houses of Parliament (the Palace of Westminster)

- It's the place of the English
Government

The Tower of London

- It was a castle of the English Kings and Queens. Then – a Fortress, a Prison, a Zoo,
- Now it's the oldest Museum in London.

Buckingham Palace –

- Home of the Kings and Queens

English Traditions.

- The British Dog Show is called Crufts. It takes place every March in Birmingham, and it is 119 years old!

Crufts is gigantic. It has been recognised by the Guinness Book of Records as the largest show in the world.

It lasts 4 days and attracts dog lovers from all the continents.

Red Nose Day

For one day every two years, Britain goes crazy. People all over the country (even police officers, teachers and celebrities wear red clone noses, do silly stupid things and raise a lot of money for charity.

Hats, hats, hats ...

- “If you want to get ahead, get a hat”, this old English saying is quite true nowadays. A few people in England find a great occasion for showing hats. The opportunity to demonstrate new hats is Royal Ascot where we can see the members of the royal family and special guests.

The English Royal Family is a tradition too.
