ABOUT MY UNIVERSITY AND SPECIALTY

I am student of KazNU.

Al-Farabi Kazakh National University (kazakh: Al-Farabi atyndaghy Qazaq Ulttyq Universiteti), is a university in Almaty, Kazakhstan. Named after the eastern philosopher and scholar Al-Farabi, it is one of the country's largest universities.

KazNU is the oldest classical university of the republic established by a decree of the Kazakh Regional Committee (KRC) office dated november 13, 1933. One year after Kazakhstan's 1990 declaration of independence, the name was changed to Al-Farabi Kazakh National University.

I am a student of the faculty of biology. At us group BB17-05. My specialty is scientific biology. I love my faculty and majors. My favorite objects are zoology.

Many biological science specializations are on the rise, due to concerns ranging from healthcare to climate change. As communication and transportation advances bring the world's people closer together, the scientific community has expanded its efforts to deal with life-threatening diseases. Therefore, many new biology majors study genetics, immunology and endocrinology. As humans live longer and remain physically active through more of their lives, biology majors can help meet the increased demand for qualified researchers and physicians.

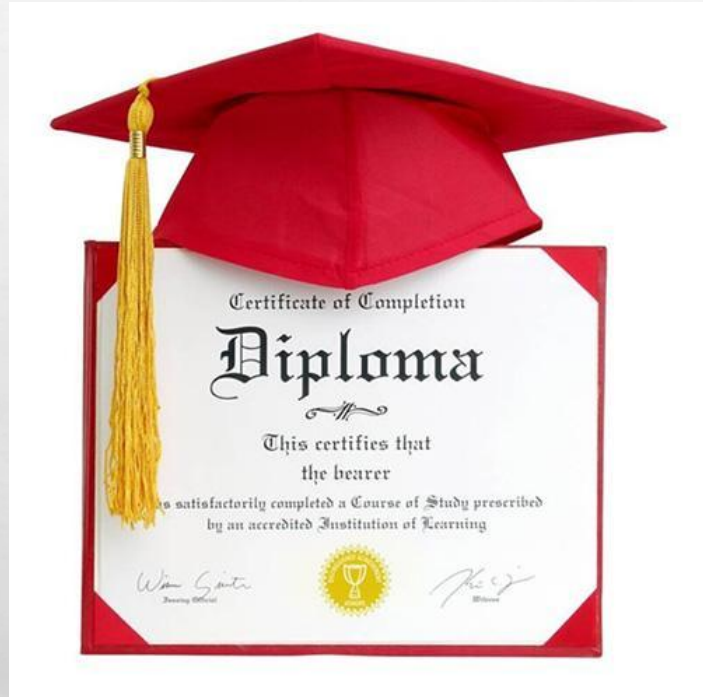

My group is very friendly, and we are all activists of our university. You can see here our student life.

CONCLUSION

And so I told you briefly about me, my future goal is to be a good biologist and I want to study with science.
