

English
form 11
Unit 3

The American System of Government

THE USA GOVERNMENT

Executive Branch

- President
- Vice President
- States
- Executive office of the President

Legislative Branch

- Congress
- Senate
- House

Judicial Branch

- Supreme Court of the US

The Constitution

- the central instrument of American Government
- the supreme law of the land
- the world's oldest written constitution proclaimed in 1787 in Philadelphia
- has served as the model for a number of other constitutions around the world

The Legislative Branch

elections are always in November

Congress

the House of Representatives

2 year term

435 members

depends on the number of inhabitants of each state

elections every 2 years

the whole House is replaced

> 25 y.o.

the Senate

6 year term

100 members

6-year term, elections - every 2 years, 1/3 of members are replaced

> 30 y.o.

The Executive Branch

◆ The President

- a 4-year term
- can be elected for only 2 terms
- the powers are enormous, but limited
- salary $200,000 + $50,000 + $100,000
- inauguration - January, 20
- native-born American citizen, > 35 y.o., > 14 y. resident of the USA

◆ The Vice President

→ a 4-year term

The Judicial Branch

the Supreme Court

a Chief Justice

eight Associate Justices

The Main Political Parties

→ the Democratic Party

its origin from Thomas Jefferson's party formed before 1800

→ the Republican Party □

formed in the 1850s, in the North and West

the Government Systems:

- federal
- state
- country
- local

One of the main principles - is the "one person, one vote" principle.

Legislators are elected from geographical districts directly by voters.

The other rule is "the President proposes, but Congress disposes".

