Michael Joseph Jackson

- Music by Michael Jackson is known around the world. He has made a significant contribution to the development of popular music, video, dance and fashion. He was ambitious, creative, self-confident and determined. I admire his music it makes us dance, it is energetic and cool. Jackson died in 2009 from an overdose of propofol, imposed by doctors.

Mikhail Afanasyevich Bulgakov

- Mikhail Afanasyevich Bulgakov
- Russian writer and playwright. The author of novels, collections of short stories, humorous anecdotes, and about two dozen pieces. In his creation I really like the novel «Master and Margarita». Someone thinks that this novel Bulgakov wrote when he was already ill with schizophrenia, but what a masterpiece he wrote! He is creative, self-centered.

Murtazin Mikhail

- Murtazin Mikhail, besides being my grandfather, he was a brave war in his youth, from defending our homeland from the Nazis, forced the Dnieper. He was wounded twice. He received many awards. He is competitive, easy-going, heroic and noble. I am very proud of my grandfather.

Alexander II

- Alexander II. He is known in Russian history as a champion of large-scale reforms. He was awarded a special epithet in Russian pre-revolutionary historiography - Liberator (in connection with the abolition of serfdom, the manifest on Feb. 19, 1861). He is devoted, fail-minded and determined. He was killed in a terrorist act organized by the party of "People's Will".

Bella Swan

- Bella Swan is not real person. She is the fictional heroine of my favourite book of all time, which is called Twilight, by Stephenie Meyer. Bella is a young girl who goes to learn school in Forks. Then she met, an unusual young man who turned out to be a vampire. They loved each other. But Bella by Edward waited for trouble. Bella is a thoughtful, ridiculous and candid.
