

English Weather Proverbs

By Natalia Rabchevska

Rain before seven, fine before eleven

When the stars begin to huddle, the earth will soon become a nuddle

When a pine cone closes up, rain is on the way.

Ring around the sun, rain before night is done.

Ring around the moon, rain
by noon.

Rainbow
in the morning
gives you
fair
warning

The higher
the clouds,
the better
the weather.

Red Sky at night, sailor's delight. Red sky in the morning, sailor take warning

Flies bite before a storm.

When smoke descends, good weather ends.

If a squirrel stores many nuts, it means it will be a bad winter.

If a groundhog sees its shadow on February 2, there will be 6 more weeks of winter

Clear moon, frost soon

If corn husks are thicker than usual, a cold winter is ahead.
