English Weather Proverbs

By Natalia Rabchevska

Rain before seven, fine before eleven

When the stars begin to huddle, the earth will soon become a

When a pine cone closes up, rain is on the way.

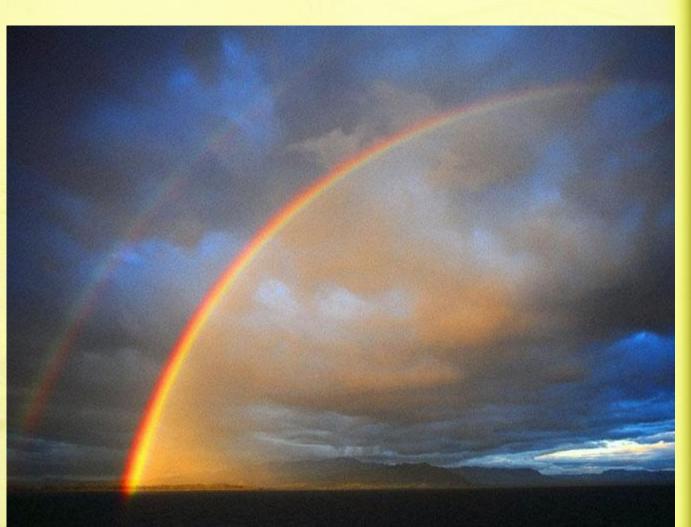

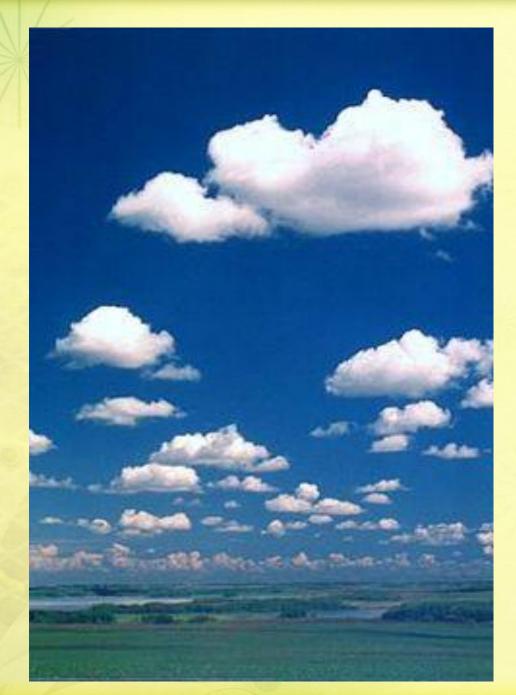

Ring around the sun, rain before night is done.

Ring around the moon, rain by noon.

Rainbow in the morning gives you fair warning

The higher the clouds, the better the weather.

Red Sky at night, sailor's delight. Red sky in the morning, sailor take warning

Flies bite before a storm.

When smoke descends, good weather ends.

If a squirrel stores many nuts, it means it will be a bad winter.

If a groundhog sees its snauow on February 2, there will be 6 more weeks of winter

Clear moon, frost soon

If corn husks are thicker than usual, a cold winter is ahead.

The Project work had done Natalia Rabchevska