Ministers tower. Beefeater protected the king's food. The beefeaters were the people who guarded the Tower and its prisoners. Today they work as guides.

One of the most important places in London is The of London. It was a fortress, a prison Tower and the King's Zoo. Now it is a museum. William the Conqueror built it in the eleventh century. There are always ravens in The Tower of London. People believe that London will be rich while ravens are there.

One of the greatest English churches is St Paul's cathedral. The famous English architect Sir Christopher Wren built it after The Great Fire of London. It is a beautiful building with columns and towers. In one of its towers there is one of the largest bells in the world.

Trafalgar square is in the centre of London. In the middle of it there is a tall column. It is a monument to Admiral Nelson. There are also four bronze lions and two fountains in the square.

The Houses of Parliament is a place where MPs (members of parliament) gather to make laws. It is situated on the bank of the river Thames. The large clock in one of the towers is Big Ben. Big Ben is not only the clock but also a bell. The clock was named after Sir Benjamin (he was a very tall man).

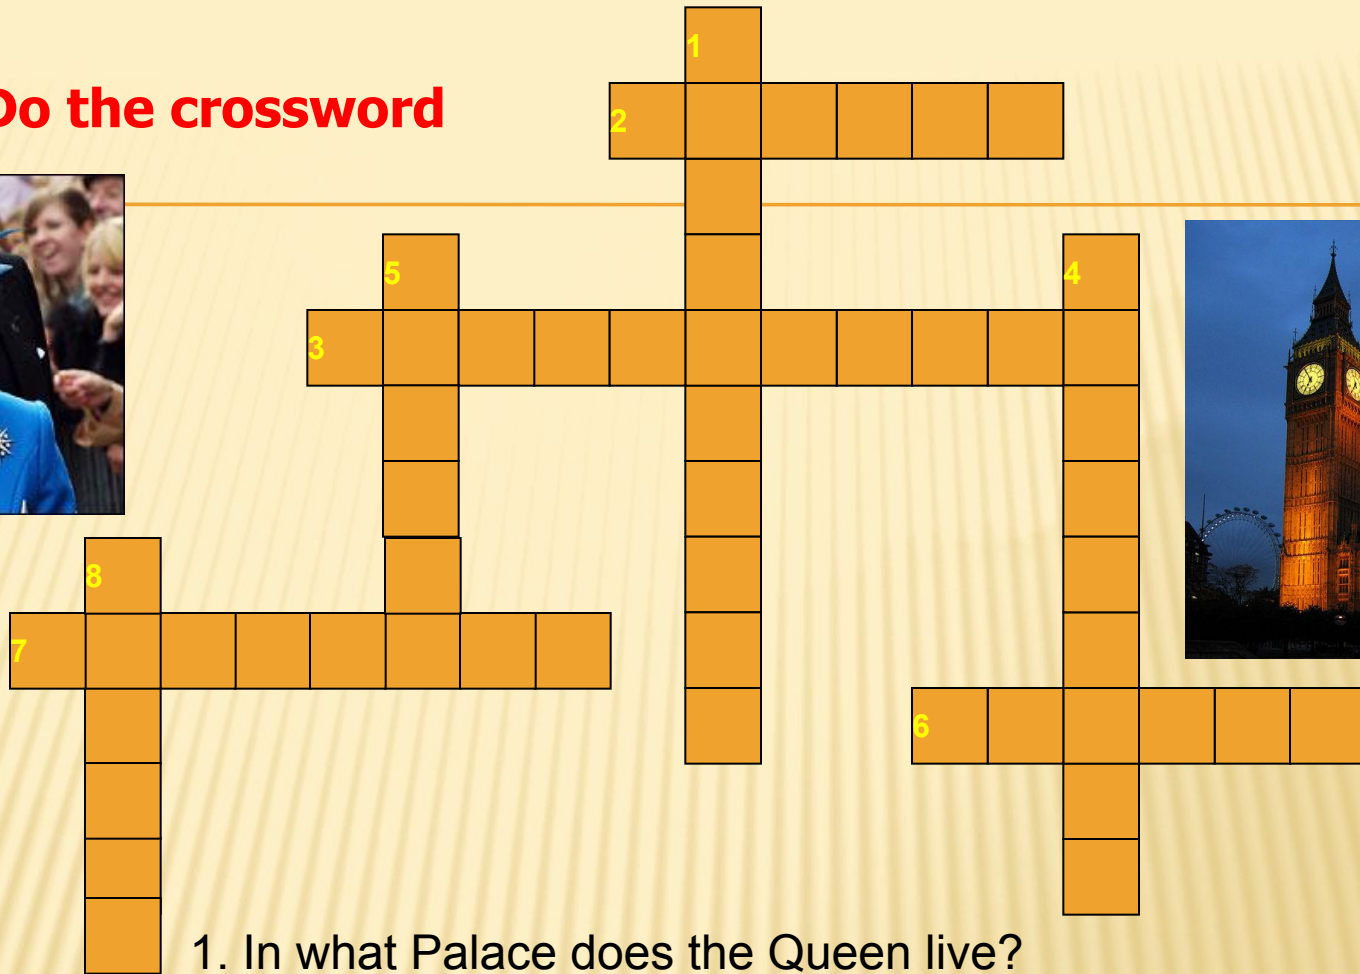

London is famous with its parks. The largest in London is Hyde Park. There are lakes with ducks in the park. Hyde park is one of the most popular places for Londoners on hot summer days.
