

Famous English painter Anthony van Dyck

Performed by
Rozhkova Anastasiya
Form 10

Anthony van Dyck

- Anthony van Dyck grew up in a large family of a wealthy merchant of Antwerp. In ten years, he began to study painting. Since 1617 was the closest assistant of Rubens, and in 1618 he became a member of the Guild of St. Luke. The first surviving independent works van Dyck ("crowning with thorns," around 1620, "St. Martin and the poor", 1620-1621 gg.)

Crowning with Thorns

Family Portrait

- van Dyck quickly became fashionable portrait painter and created another picture ("Family Portrait" circa 1620-1621 gg.)

Portrait of Cardinal Guido Bentivoglio

- The artist has created the whole gallery of portraits of the Italian aristocrats. In the image of cardinal Guido Bentivoglio (1622-1623). This work has caused delight in contemporaries and followers of the poet. One of them has declared, that paints van Dyck - « an authentic flesh and blood, light and a transparency ».

In 1632 Van Dyck moved to London. King Charles I Stuart hospitably met artist and set it to noble rank. Van Dyck became the first artist King and should work with numerous portraits of members of his family. In 1635 a thoughtful portrait of Charles I, shown on a hunt among the wonderful landscapes.

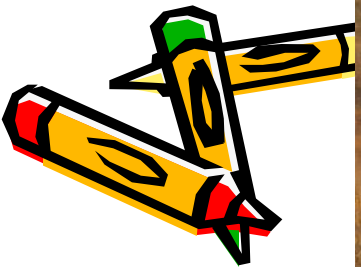

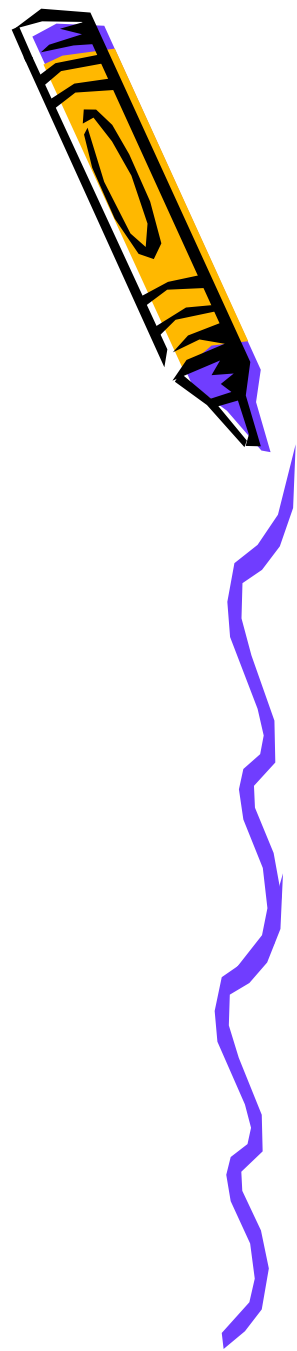

Charles 1, king of England, on hunting

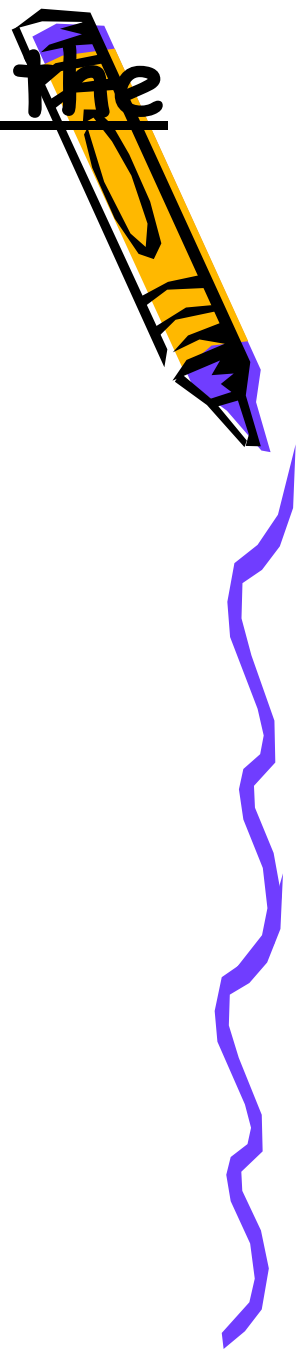

Portrait of Philadelphia and Elizabeth Uorton (second half 30th of XVII century)

Philadelphia Uorton and Elizabeth daughters of Philip Lord Norton by Elizabeth
Van Dyck, 1640 about age of 10

Venus asking from the Volcano the weapon for Aeneas

Capture of the Christ
under the guard

Maria with the baby the Christ and with aid donors

Copper snakes

Sacred Ekaterina's mystical betrothal

Rest on a way to Egypt

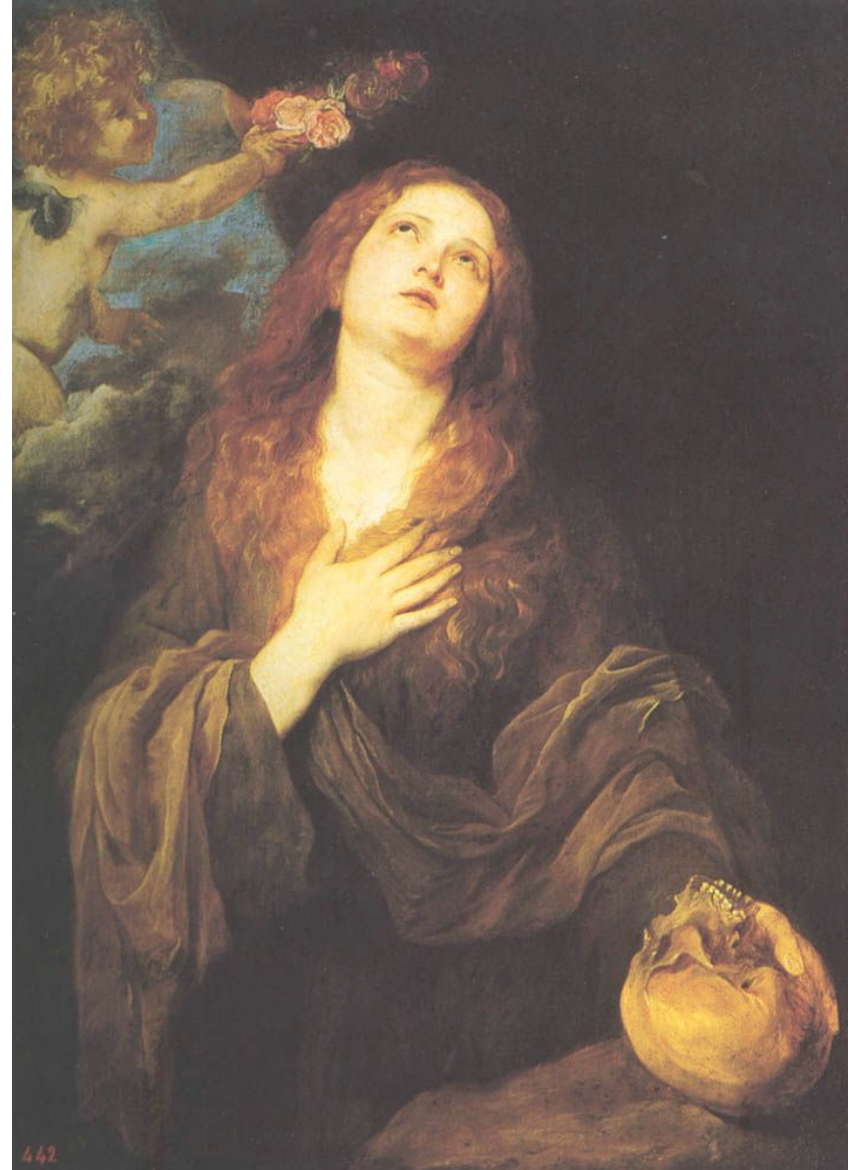

Portrait of court ladies Anna Dalkit and countesses Morton

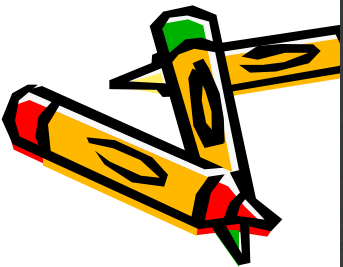

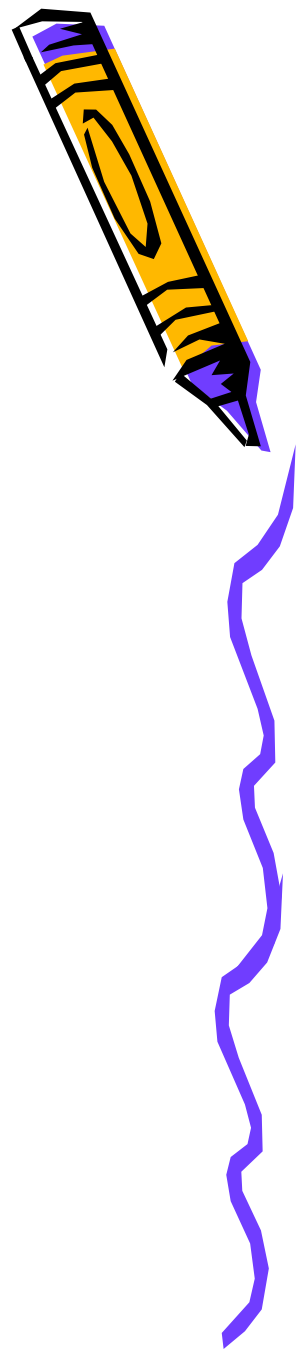

Pieta

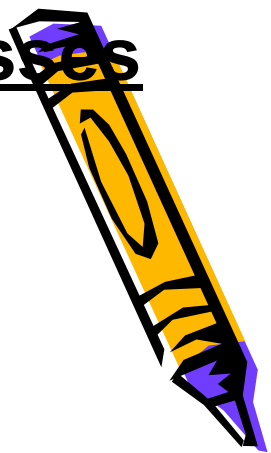

Sacred Rosalia

Portrait of Isabella Brant

Portrait Margirita Lotharingian, duchesses Orleanskoj

Sacred Francisc Xavier

