Every day people get up and wonder:

What should I wear
today?

Fashion exists to provide information about ourselves, who we think we are and who we aspire to be. It defines our age, our sex, our occupation and often, our ethnicity.

A man walks down the street in a business suit - and we gather information about him.

A young girl wears a tank top and short pink skirt - and we form an impression of her.

Today we tend to dress based on our personal taste.

If we like it, we like it. If we don't, we don't. We choose our style to express our personality.

It's nice to be cool and to dress with the times. But let's be serious, what's cool now is probably going to look silly in a few years.

Every fashion goes through three stage:

- It may be new and exciting
- It becomes popular
- Finally it becomes boring and out of a date, then a

Fashion famous designers:

Some people were asked a question:

Is it difficult for you to follow fashion?

Here are the answers:

According to the diagram:

Young people
try to following fashion

When people become older they show less interest in fashion.

And some people do not always try to follow fashion at all.
