On the 31st of October Americans and British celebrate Halloween

It's Halloween! It's Halloween!

The moon is full and bright

And we shall see what can't be seen

On any other night.

Halloween is a popular holiday in Britain and America

Children and adults like this holiday. It's fun! Many families carve pumpkins and decorate the outside of their houses

Jack-o'-lanterns are out of pumpkins. Most Jack-o'-lanterns have a candle inside. It's scared!

On this day
children wear costumes and masks. They go trick-or-treating
....

All believe that there are a lot of ghosts, witches, skeletons on Halloween. Children tell stories about. Boo!

Also British like to prepare interesting dishes. Look!
