On streets spring hippies wander.
To grated old jeans have stuck Earth lumps, small stalks and blades.
And to a city fresh paints in a novelty,
And the winter skin – is rough and close.
The city has got rid of boredom and a rash –
Be glad, people in streets of hippie,
It seems that and the truth
has come spring.

The hippie subculture was originally a youth movement that arose in the United States during the mid-1960s, swiftly spreading to other countries around the world.

Hippies protested against Puritan morals of some Protestant churches, and also propagandized aspiration to return to natural cleanliness through love and pacifism. One of the most known slogans of hippie: «Make love, not war!»,

They unite in System. It some kind of club in which accept not everyone. The system shares on groups (party) where there are two layers: "pioneers" and "oldovie" (mammoths). "Pioneers" - teenagers, "oldovie" - the old members of System seriously penetrating into problems of religion, mysticism, art creativity.

As hippies often intertwined with flowers in hair, distributed flowers to passers-by and inserted them into weapon barrels of policemen and soldiers, they began to name «children of colours».

Symbol of hippie is pacific

Hippies wear simple clothes, blue jeans and open sandals. They often chose brightly colored clothing and wore unusual styles, such as bell-bottom pants, vests, tie-dyed garments, dashikis, peasant blouses, and long, full skirts

Also they carried a bandana or wreaths from colours on a head.

Hippies like to have fun and sometimes some members of this subculture are on drugs. But sometimes they despise them.

Hippies prefer to listen to a reggae music.

Hippies very much like to travel.

It is considered one of symbols of movement of hippie an old minibus "the Volkswagen", which hippie traditionally painted in style «Flower Power ».
