- ◆ We use a lot of/lots of with plural countable nouns (e.g. books, cars, etc.) and uncountable nouns (e.g. sugar, milk, etc.) in positive statements.

e.g. She's got a lot of/lots of books.

There's a lot of milk in the fridge.

Note: We omit of when a lot is not followed by a noun.

e.g. Are there many people in the room? Yes, there are a lot.

- ◆ We normally use much with uncountable nouns in questions and negations.

e.g. How much money have you got?

There isn't much sugar in the bowl.

- ◆ We normally use many with plural countable nouns in questions and negations.

e.g. Are there many books on the shelf? There aren't many books on the shelf.

- ◆ In questions we use how much to ask about the amount of something and how many to ask about the number of things.

How much + uncountable noun How many + countable noun

e.g. How much sugar do we need? A kilo. (We want to know the amount.)

How many boys are there in your class? Twenty. (We want to know the number.)

	Affirmative	Interrogative	Negative
Countable nouns	a lot (of) lots of	(how) many	many
